Eaton,1971 The Buildings of Samuel Maclure Martin Segger,1986 The American Architect,1916 Toronto Architect Edmund Burke Angela Carr,1995 Burke's contributions to Canadian architecture include introducing the technology of the Chicago men to Canada and helping to establish a formal professional organization for architects in Ontario Following the Curve of Time Cathy Converse,2011-02-01 Cathy Converse has given us a welcome commentary on Capi Blanchet and her world one that enriches our understanding of both The Tyee A paperback edition of the BC Book Award nominated biography of Capi Blanchet the author of the BC coastal classic The Curve of Time After her husband died in 1926 from a suspected drowning Capi Blanchet spent every summer cruising BC's west coast with her five children and their dog in the family's 25 foot boat The Curve of Time is the book Capi wrote chronicling these adventures and it remains a bestseller and a classic in the annals of nautical literature But little is known about the rest of her life Cathy Converse found herself asking who was this skipper this mother this writer In this biography Converse offers insiders recollections of this enigmatic woman along with family photos and updated information about the villages inlets and islands described in The Curve of Time Following the Curve of Time is essential reading for anyone who has ever been captivated by the book the West Coast or Capi herself Samuel Maclure University of Victoria (B.C.). demonstrating that it developed with its own logic in response to national and international factors During the two decades after 1885 Canadian architects grappled with problems whose long term implications they could not have foreseen the role of the architect in industrialised society the need to accommodate and integrate applied science and the need to express their own and their country s personality in architectural form By the beginning of this century they had begun to find their own voice The story of this process will be of interest not just to students and scholars but to anyone interested in the development of Canada and its architecture

On the Street Where You Live Danda Humphreys,1999 Today the streets of Victoria are busy thoroughfares Yesterday they were simple trails used by the Hudson s Bay Company men and the First Nations people who traded with them and helped build their fort Then came the gold miners followed by the bankers and businessmen sailors and saloon keepers poets postmasters architects and astronomers They re remembered in Victoria s city s streets and every street name tells a story Courtney Street is a misspelled memorial to Captain George W Courtenay whose Constance was one of the first of Her Majesty s vessels to sail into Esquimalt Harbour in the 1840s Fan Tan Alley provides a tantalizing glimpse into 1800s Chinatown where Fan Tan gambling dens existed alongside brothels and opium factories that fuelled the gamblers fortunes Rattenbury Place is named for the ill fated architect who designed the Empress Hotel and the Parliament Buildings Danda s knack for colourful no nonsense writing makes history come alive You ll sympathize with the characters she writes about enjoy them and through their eyes experience 19 century Victoria in a way you ve never experienced it before

Cowichan Chronicles Thomas William Paterson,2001 6,000 Years of Housing Norbert Schoenauer,2000 Part architecture part history and part anthropology this encyclopedic book limns the story of housing around the world from the pre urban dwellings of nomadic semi nomadic and sedentary agricultural societies to the present Ancient urban dwellings were inward looking ranged around a courtyard Until fairly recently these dwelling types survived in indigenous urban house forms in the Islamic world India China and the Iberian peninsula and Latin America After the collapse of the Roman Empire however outward looking house forms replaced the ancient form in most of Europe and the New World In the Middle Ages houses served both as homes and as places of work but gradually the domestic and business lives of the inhabitants became separate In the wake of the Industrial Revolution profound changes in the residential development of the western world occurred housing became segregated along socioeconomic lines and dwelling types polarized with low density single family houses at one extreme and tall high density multifamily tenements and apartments at the other Side effects of America automobile intensive suburban dream housing include inefficient land use pollution and urban decay 6 000 Years of Housing chronicles how this came about and suggests solutions based on a rich variety of historical precedents "Fashion, Interior Design and the Contours of Modern Identity " Alla Myzelev, 2017-07-05 Challenging the notion that fashion and furniture were or are separate enterprises and distinct material aesthetic traditions this collection focuses on three material and conceptual links central to understanding the relationship between interior design and fashion the body fabric and space The volume considers the changing visual material and spatial character methodological challenges posed by and formal political and historiographical significance of a wide range of British European and North American case studies since the eighteenth century The volume s eleven case studies allow the reader to understand connecting notions behind the formation of interiors and fashionable clothing The essays combine a wide range of significant and challenging new examples alongside powerful revisionary analyses of the various periods artists designers and their best and significant objects Fashion Interior Design and the Contours of Modern Identity is concerned not only with fabric but also with the body and the implications of embodiment in the practices of both design domains which are equally invested in the comfort aesthetic pleasure extension and support of the body in different and yet seemingly identical ways
