Samuel R Delany Starmont Readers Guide:

Samuel R. Delany Jane Branham Weedman, 1982-01-01 Xenograffiti R. Reginald, 1996-01-01 In this new retrospective collection spanning almost forty years Pilgrim Award and Collector's Award winning fantasy novelist critic and bibliographer Robert Reginald contributes forty five essays on writers of fantastic literature including such major and minor figures as Piers Anthony Edwin Lester Arnold Margaret Atwood John Kendrick Bangs Leslie Barringer John Bellairs Arthur Byron Cover Lindsey Davis Alexander de Comeau Daphne du Maurier R Lionel Fanthorpe H Rider Haggard Charlotte Haldane Edward Heron Allen Eleanor M Ingram Vernon Knowles Katherine Kurtz Andrew Lang Fritz Leiber Bruce McAllister Ward Moore Robert Nathan Sir Henry Newbolt William F Nolan John Norman Keith Roberts Michael Reaves Brian Stableford and George Zebrowski Also included is a comprehensive bibliography and history of the publications of Starmont House Inc and FAX Collector's Editions a selection of reviews and obituaries a bibliography and detailed index This unique literary collection will prove of interest both to students and researchers alike This second edition features fifteen new pieces including the author's earliest published critique 1968 and a number of original autobiographical reflections on his life and career penned shortly after his heart attack in 2003 The Subject of Race in American Science Fiction Sharon DeGraw, 2006-12-19 While the connections between science fiction and race have largely been neglected by scholars racial identity is a key element of the subjectivity constructed in American SF In his Mars series Edgar Rice Burroughs primarily supported essentialist constructions of racial identity but also included a few elements of racial egalitarianism Writing in the 1930s George S Schuyler revised Burroughs normative SF triangle of white author white audience and white protagonist and promoted an individualistic highly variable concept of race instead While both Burroughs and Schuyler wrote SF focusing on racial identity the largely separate genres of science fiction and African American literature prevented the similarities between the two authors from being adequately acknowledged and explored Beginning in the 1960s Samuel R Delany more fully joined SF and African American literature Delany expands on Schuyler's racial constructionist approach to identity including gender and sexuality in addition to race Critically intertwining the genres of SF and African American literature allows a critique of the racism in the science fiction and a more accurate and positive portrayal of the scientific connections in the African American literature Connecting the popular fiction of Burroughs the controversial career of Schuyler and the postmodern texts of Delany illuminates a gradual change from a stable essentialist construction of racial identity at the turn of the century to the variable social construction of poststructuralist subjectivity today Ash of stars , A critical appreciation of the acclaimed science fiction writer and his works BP 250 R. comics songs and the Internet The Year's Scholarship in Science Fiction, Fantasy, and Horror Literature, 1982 Marshall B. Tynm, 1985 Modern Retellings of Chivalric Texts Gloria Allaire, 2018-12-21 Published in 1999 the ten essays in this collection identify and examine reworkings of identifiable source texts from the medieval or Renaissance periods The reasons for the modern adaptations depend variously on an individual author's personal perspectives the worldview of his or her society and the individual's place in it The various chapters therefore address issues such as why a particular model was chosen and how its retelling depends on the modern author's misreading or rereading of medieval chivalric conventions This book compliments numerous existing studies of medievalism in the Enlightenment and Victorian eras by examining more recent adaptations of the much studied Arthurian romances but primarily extends the discussion on the nature of revivals to other medieval or Renaissance chivalric texts especially the Carolingian cycle epic The collection includes not only literary retellings of medieval texts but also some in different media such as theatre and cinema

Futurescapes Ralph Pordzik, 2009 This book testifies to the growing interest in the many spaces of utopia It intends to map out on utopian and science fiction discourses some of the new and revisionist models of spatial analysis applied in Literary and Cultural Studies in recent years The aim of the volume is to side step the established generic binary of utopia and dystopia or science fiction and thus to open the analysis of utopian literature to new lines of inquiry The essays collected here propose to think of utopias not so much as fictional texts about future change and transformation but as vital elements in a cultural process through which social spatial and subjective identities are formed Utopias can thus be read as textual systems implying a distinct spatial and temporal dimension as spatial practices that tend to naturalize a cultural and social construction that of the good life the radically improved welfare state the Christian paradise the counter society etc and make that representation operational by interpellating their readers in some determinate relation to their givenness as sites of political and individual improvement This volume is of interest for all scholars and students of literature who wish to explore the ways in which utopias of the past and recent present have circulated as media of cultural exchange and homogenization as sites of cultural and linguistic appropriation and as foci for the spatial formation of national and regional identities in the English speaking world Black American Literature Forum, 1984 African American Writers Valerie

Smith, 2001 Contains biographical and critical essays on the work of important African American writers The Year's Scholarship in Science Fiction, Fantasy, and Horror Literature, 1981 Marshall B. Tynm, 1984 Historical Dictionary of Science Fiction Literature Brian Stableford, 2004-04-19 This reference tracks the development of speculative fiction influenced by the advancement of science and the idea of progress from the eighteenth century to the present day The major authors and publications of the genre and significant subgenres are covered Additionally there are entries on fields of science and technology which have been particularly prolific in provoking such speculation The list of acronyms and abbreviations the chronology covering the literature from the 1700s through the present the introductory
