Sanctions And Sanctuary Dorothy A Counts, Judith K Brown, Jacquelyn C Campbell, 2019-05-28 Bringing together evidence from 15 Western and non Western societies ranging from hunter gatherers to urban Americans this book examines wife beating from a worldwide perspective Cross cultural comparison aims to give a more accurate picture of cultural influences on wife battering and to show the commonalities and differences of the phenomenon Sanctions and Sanctuary DOROTHY A. BROWN COUNTS (JUDITH K. CAMPBELL, JACQUELYN C.), Judith K Brown, Jacquelyn C Campbell, 2019-05-31 Bringing together evidence from 15 Western and non Western societies ranging from hunter gatherers to urban Americans this book examines wife beating from a worldwide perspective Cross cultural comparison aims to give a more accurate picture of cultural influences on wife battering and to show the commonalities and differences of the phenomenon Encyclopedia of Violence, Peace, and Conflict Lester R. Kurtz, Jennifer E. Turpin, 1999-08-10 The Encyclopedia of Violence Peace and Conflict a three volume set written by more than 200 eminent contributors from around the world takes advantage of increasing worldwide awareness in the public private commercial and academic sectors about manifestations of violence in all segments of society While the contributors do not use these volumes to make specific arguments they do describe and clarify the developments in thought that have led to current theories about and positions on violence and peace Our reviewers consistently note that while many in depth studies of war peace and aggression exist the attendant specialization keeps scholars from learning about related fields No publication competing with the Encyclopedia of Violence Peace and Conflict can satisfy their need for a vast introductory work to such a diverse and socially important field This major work includes more than 190 multidisciplinary articles with over 1 000 cross references and more than 2 000 bibliography entries for further reading which are arranged alphabetically for easy access More than 190 multidisciplinary articles with over 1 000 cross references Article outline and glossary of key terms begin each article Entries arranged alphabetically for easy access Three volume set with subject index of over 750 entries Articles written by more than 200 eminent contributors from around the world To Have and to Hit Dorothy Ayers Counts, Judith K. Brown, Jacquelyn Campbell, 1999 This vitally important volume places the problem of wife beating in a broad cultural context in a search for strategies to reform societies including our own that are prone to this pernicious form of violence Based on first hand ethnographic data on more than a dozen societies including a number in Oceania this collection explores the social and cultural factors that work either to inhibit or to promote domestic violence against women The volume also includes a study of abuse among nonhuman primates and a cross cultural analysis of the legal aspects of wife beating By presenting counterexamples from other cultures contributors challenge Western assumptions about the factors leading to wife beating Through a close examination of societies where wife beating is infrequent or absent To Have and To Hit identifies the factors economic social political and cultural that must be explored and transformed in order to combat this violence and eventually eliminate it Women and Justice Roslyn

Muraskin,2005-09-27 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Individual, the Family, and Social Good Gary B. Melton,1995-01-01 The question of whether personal gratification is compatible with social good is one of the fundamental problems of motivation The family an institution that has undergone extraordinary change in the last generation is perhaps the most profound context in which to consider this issue This volume is tinged with prophetic concern about the state of contemporary family life and about the un likelihood of reconciling individual family members interests with those of the family as a whole The nine contributors backgrounds are diverse anthropology economics law and clinical community developmental and social psychology and their positions on the nature of motivation in families vary widely Their views are often disquieting and sometimes conflicting as they offer provocative analyses of divorce family violence political transitions and concerns of both Western and non Western cultures Gary B Melton is director of the Institute for Families in Society at the University of South Carolina and professor of law neuropsychiatry and psychology His books include Adolescent Abortion Psychological and Legal Issues Nebraska 1986

Cultural Perspectives on Reproductive Health Carla Makhoul Obermeyer,2001-08-23 This volume brings together studies carried out in a variety of contexts to explore the relevance of the notion of reproductive health and the role of culture in shaping its diverse manifestations The perspective that guides the collection is informed by anthropological and sociological research on the body pluralism and medicalization and by recent debates regarding women s health and the need to reconcile global agendas and local conditions The fourteen chapters provide views of how reproductive health is viewed by women and men in different parts of the world mainly at the level of local communities in India Egypt Mexico Kenya and South Africa but also in centres of power in China and Iran and in modern and post modern settings of the North and Far East The methodological approaches used by authors are varied but all share a concern with the perceptions decisions and rationalizations that surround health and reproduction A central theme is the correspondence between professional and lay models of reproductive health and some chapters explicitly seek to uncover the logic of practices that appear irrational from a biomedical point of view By analysing behaviour from the perspective of the actors themselves they show the relevance of local notions for understanding the factors that constitute risks for reproductive ill health including conditions of material deprivation constraints in seeking care and inappropriate use of therapies and technologies Cultural Perspectives on Reproductive Health illustrates complex processes of negotiation adaptation and manipulation in the formulation of ideas and policies related to reproductive health through analyses of such topics as the state s discourse on population religious constraints on abortion care professional and legal policies on reproductive technologies health professionals response to violence and the dilemmas that emerge from the new diagnostic and genetic techniques It also invites reflection on the societal construction of rights across cultures and on the place of cultural explanations in analyses of reproductive health Fighting Women Victoria Katherine Burbank,2024-07-26 Fighting is common among contemporary

Aboriginal women in Mangrove Australia Women fight with men and with other women often with the other woman Victoria Burbank s depiction of these women offers a powerful new perspective that can be applied to domestic violence in Western settings Noting that Aboriginal women not only talk without shame about their angry emotions but also express them in acts of aggression and defense Burbank emphasizes the positive social and cultural implications of women s refusal to be victims She explores questions of hierarchy and the expression of emotions as well as women s roles in domestic violence Human aggression can be experienced and expressed in different ways she says and is not necessarily always wrong Fighting Women is relevant to discussions of aggression and gender relations in addition to debates on the victimization of women and children everywhere This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994 Women in the Third World Nelly P. Intimate Partner Violence and Advocate Response , Melissa Beske,2016-04-21 Intimate Partner Violence and Advocate Response Redefining Love in Western Belize offers new insight into the cross cultural analysis of gender based intimate partner violence by blending activist anthropology with in depth ethnographic research to evaluate and help ameliorate the crisis in Belize Drawing from twenty months of fieldwork in the Belizean Cayo District conducted between 2002 and 2013 Melissa A Beske investigates the prevalence and complexity of partner abuse the contributing cultural and structural factors and the advocate dynamics across local national and transnational frameworks in combating the problem Combining enlivened narratives comparative viewpoints and scholar activism this book not only illustrates the lived suffering of partner abuse in Cayo but it also engages with the passionate commitment of survivors and supporters as they endeavor to create a more equitable and peaceful community In doing so it demonstrates an effective strategy for the interdisciplinary assessment of gender based abuse which satisfies demands for theoretical impartiality while simultaneously enabling researchers to take an ethical stand in social causes

The Health Of Women Jill Gay,2018-05-04 This book provides a state of the art comprehensive review of the many factors that affect women s health ranging from low socioeconomic status and the impact of the debt crisis to more direct medical determinants such as poor nutrition hemorrhage eclampsia and infection At stake are the unnecessary and preventable deaths of women and girls around the globe The contributors assess the reduced quality of life for women and the often unacknowledged contributions of women and girls as the backbone of production in both developing and developed countries Synthesizing perspectives of policymakers and practitioners researchers and scholars The Health of Women urges major new initiatives to understand and improve women s health taking into account biological elements such as the life cycle of women as well as cultural constraints and socioeconomic realities

Sheltering Women Sonja Plesset,2006-10-11 Residents of Parma Italy pride themselves on their sophistication and connection to European modernity But despite a reputation for civility intimate partner violence continues to take place largely hidden from public view Offering a detailed ethnography of two women s shelters one leftist the other Catholic this book provides the political cultural and legal contexts of competing explanations for intimate partner violence Some contend that violence against women reflects the cultural and historical gender inequalities embedded in Italian society including old fashioned or traditional understandings of masculinity

Others argue that it stems from confusion and ambivalence over new or modern forms of gender relations While the first explanation places the blame on tradition and the second cites the transition to modernity both emphasize societal understandings of gender and point to collective rather than individual responsibility Through an intimate portrayal of everyday life Sheltering Women reveals how violence against women can be studied as one part of a continuum of locally relevant understandings of gender relations and gender change
