Poetry by Dino Dean Evans, 2014-06-02 The art of Poetry I have been writing poetry for only a few years and as such can I really consider myself a poet The answer to this question is Yes To be a poet is a condition not a profession Each individual who takes on the quest of writing poetry places upon his or her self not a turning loose of emotion but an escape from emotion Poetry is not the expression of personality but an escape from personality As a painter uses color and the lack of color light and shade the poet uses language as his canvas A poet uses the written word to express his pictures to the world

And if the poet is successful in what he is trying to say to the reader it becomes the revelation of a feeling that the poet believes to be interior and personal which the reader recognizes as his own Even when poetry has a meaning as it usually has it may be inadvisable to draw it out perfect understanding will sometimes almost extinguish pleasure Genuine poetry can communicate before it is understood I ve written some poetry I don t understand myself At times I may get a thought and have a clear idea what I want to say and before the poem is finished I have gone in a totally different direction as the lines and ideas flow in and out of my mind until the next one comes along to leave the finished poem in no way resembling the original idea that I started with This is true of the Painter as well seeing things not as they are but as the Painter imagines they are Creativity is allowing yourself to make mistakes Art is knowing which ones to keep The poet doesn t invent He listens The poet is a liar who always speaks the truth Each memorable verse of a true poet has two or three times the written content I find as I read through the hard copies of poems that I have written there are many changed lines or thoughts crossed out and rearranged in an attempt to get the thoughts just as i imagine them in my mind and that is a very difficult thing to accomplish Art is the desire of a man to express himself to record the reactions of his personality to the world he lives in It enables us to find ourselves and lose ourselves at the same time Poetry is thoughts that breathe and words that burn A sculptor is a person who is interested in the shape of things a poet in words a musician in sounds All are on the same plane in my opinion and all express to the audience in attendance the thoughts of the artist An artist is somebody who produces things that people don t need to have Although people enjoy the art of the poet the painter the musician these are not things that we need to survive only things that help us enjoy in a small way that survival Dean Evans Degeneration Max Simon Nordau,1895 My Path to Poetry While in Captivity Theresa Romance,2011-05-31 Get ready to be embraced by inspirational poetry through the eyes of a successful surviving prisoner In this book you will find poems and quotes that will help you gain self motivation and self confidence You will discover love poems poems about family spiritual poems and other writings that help you set your mind free There is truth in making a negative situation into a positive one When you find that truth you will discover the power to escape your own personal captivity allowing your optimism to come true A Brief Inquiry Into the Province and Laws of Poetry Josephine May Burnham,1909 Annual Reports and Transactions Plymouth Institution and Devon and Cornwall Natural History Society,1903 Power of the Pen Elizabeth Padillo Olesen,2024-11-14 Synopsis It is a book of 136 poems with illustrative art of the author s own paintings and drawings It is divided into 4 sections Defining poetry its process and its voice from the heart inspiring readers to write Giving tributes to poets survivors heroes and victims in our time Delving into the valley of death personally experienced or seen in our common history of diseases pandemics climate changes violence and wars and the tragedy over quick human response by hate and vengeance Finding hope in our time in the spirituality of faith love and peace May this book lead to a deeper reflection on events and situations in history that affect us as persons as local communities and as one humanity in our one earth The author's intention is to bring the message of hope in our time through poetry as part of our own human sanity This book Power of the Pen Poetry of Hope and Peace for our Time of 136 poems in 4 sections is put together within our context of pandemics climate crises raging violence and wars Here is an attempt to present the reality in our own local and global history as one people with deep challenges in life and with a common longing for peace I hope this collection will bring hope I look at joy as something innate in every human heart and can be experienced as we daily celebrate life with love and faith These are poems from my heart also meant to encourage all those who have interest in writing to just get a pen and write Happy reading Inspiration and Insanity in British Poetry Joseph Crawford, 2019-07-24 This book explores the ways in which poetic inspiration came to be associated with madness in early nineteenth century Britain By examining the works of poets such as Barrett Browning Clare Tennyson Townshend and the Spasmodics in relation to the burgeoning asylum system and shifting medical discourses of the period it investigates the ways in which Britain's post Romantic poets understood their own poetic vocations within a cultural context that insistently linked poetic talent with illness and insanity Joseph Crawford examines the popularity of mesmerism among the writers of the era as an alternative system of medicine that provided a more sympathetic account of the nature of poetic genius and investigates the persistent tension found throughout the literary and medical writings of the period between the Romantic ideal of the poet as a transcendent visionary genius and the medico psychological conception of poets as mere case studies in abnormal neurological development The Family Herald, 1861

Cultural Constructions of Madness in Eighteenth-Century Writing A. Ingram, M. Faubert, 2004-11-30 Cultural Constructions of Madness in the Eighteenth Century deals with the mis representation of insanity through a substantial range of literary forms and figures from across the eighteenth century and beyond Chapters cover the representation distortion sentimentalization and elevation of insanity and such associated issues as gender personal identity and performance in some of the best as well as some of the least known writers of the period A selection of visual material including works by Hogarth Rowlandson and Gillray is also discussed While primarily adopting a literary focus the work is informed throughout by an alertness to significant issues of medical and psychiatric history Pitch of Poetry Charles Bernstein, 2016-03-21 Bernstein a leading voice in American literary theory writes an irreverent guide to modernist and contemporary poetics

Ezra Pound: Poet A. David Moody, 2015-09-24 This third and final volume of A David Moody's critical life of Ezra Pound presents Pound's personal tragedy in a tragic time In this volume we experience the 1939 1945 World War and Pound's hubristic involvement in Fascist Italy's part in it we encounter the grave moral and intellectual error of Pound holding the Jewish race responsible for the war and his consequent downfall being charged with treason condemned as an anti Semite and shut up for twelve years in an institution for the insane Further we see Pound stripped for life by his own counsel and wife of his civil and human rights Pound endured what was inflicted upon him justly and unjustly without complaint and continued his lifetime's effort to promote in and through his Cantos and his translations a consciousness of a possible humane and just social order The contradictions run deep and compel as tragedy does a steady and unprejudiced contemplation and an answering depth of comprehension Journal of the American Society for Psychical Research American Society for Psychical Research,1915 List of members in v 1 6 12 Senecan Tragedy and the Reception of Augustan Poetry Christopher V. Trinacty,2014 Christopher Trinacty's Senecan Tragedy and the Reception of Augustan Poetry uniquely places Senecan tragedy in its Roman literary context offering a further dimension to the motivations and meaning behind Seneca's writings By reading Senecan tragedy through an intertextual lens Senecan Tragedy and the Reception of Augustan Poetry reveals Seneca's awareness of his historical moment in which the Augustan period was eroding steadily around him

Women, Modernism and British Poetry, 1910-1939 Jane Dowson,2017-03-02 Primarily a literary history Women Modernism and British Poetry 1910 1939 provides a timely discussion of individual women poets who have become or are becoming well known as their works are reprinted but about whom little has yet been written This volume recognizes the contributions overlooked previously of such British poets as Anna Wickham Nancy Cunard Edith Sitwell Mina Loy Charlotte Mew May Sinclair Vita Sackville West and Sylvia Townsend Warner and the impact of such American poets as H D Amy Lowell Edna St Vincent Millay Marianne Moore and Laura Riding on literary practice in Britain This book primarily maps the poetry scene in Britain but identifies the significance of the network of writers between London New York and Paris It assesses women's participation in the diversity of modernist developments which include avant garde experiments quiet but subtly challenging formalism and assertive new woman voices It not only chronicles women's poetry but also their publications and involvement in running presses bookshops and writing criticism Although historically situated it is written from the perspective of contemporary debates concerning the interface of gender and modernism The author argues that a cohering aesthetic of the poetry is a denial of femininity through various evasions of gendered identity such as masking male and female impersonations and the rupturing of realist modes

«Remov'd from human eyes»: Madness and Poetry 1676-1774 Natali, Ilaria,2016-08-30 The years 1676 and 1774 marked two turning points in the social and legal treatment of madness in England In 1676 London's Bethlehem Hospital expanded in grand new premises and in 1774 the Madhouses Act attempted to limit confinement of the insane This study explores almost a century of the English history of madness through the texts of five poets who were considered mentally troubled according to contemporary standards James Carkesse Anne Finch William Collins Christopher Smart and William Cowper were hospitalized sequestered or exiled from society Their works cope with representations of insanity medical definitions or practices imputed illness and the judging eye of the sane other shedding new light on the discontinuities in the notion of madness of this period
