from The S nkhyā Aphorisms of Kapila With Extracts From Vijñāna Bhikṣu's Commentary At the time of his departure from India in 1860 Dr Ballantyne left with me the MS of his revised translation of the S nkhyā Aphorisms He had already printed 32 pages and I undertook to carry the remainder through the press for him while he promised to send from England an Introduction on the S nkhyā Philosophy I must plead my many engagements at the time as an excuse for the misprints which unfortunately escaped me in the sheets under my charge I subjoin a list of those which I have noticed The serious omission at the foot of p 32 must have arisen from some blunder of the printers when the printing of the work recommenced after the author's departure My friend Dr F E Hall who looked over Dr Ballantyne's papers informs me that he found nothing among them in any way relating to the promised Introduction We must therefore be content with the bare translation as it stands and accept it as the last contribution to the cause of Sanskrit literature from one of whom in spite of his occasional hasty judgments and inaccuracies British India has good reason to be proud About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
