Colonial India in Children's Literature Supriya Goswami, 2012-07-26

Colonial India in Children's Literature is the first book length study to explore the intersections of children's literature and defining historical moments in colonial India. Engaging with important theoretical and critical literature that deals with colonialism, hegemony and marginalization in children's literature, Goswami proposes that British Anglo Indian and Bengali children's literature respond to five key historical events: the missionary debates preceding the Charter Act of 1813, the defeat of Tipu Sultan, the Mutiny of 1857, the birth of Indian nationalism and the Swadeshi movement resulting from the Partition of Bengal in 1905. Through a study of works by Mary Sherwood (1775-1851), Barbara Hofland (1770-1844), Sara Jeanette Duncan (1861-1922), Rudyard Kipling (1865-1936), Upendrakishore Ray (1863-1915) and Sukumar Ray (1887-1923), Goswami examines how children's literature negotiates and represents these momentous historical forces that unsettled Britain's imperial ambitions in India. Goswami argues that nineteenth century British and Anglo Indian children's texts reflect two distinct moods in Britain's colonial enterprise in India. Sherwood and Hofland, writing before 1857, use the tropes of conversion and captivity as a means of awakening children to the dangers of India, whereas Duncan and Kipling shift the emphasis to martial prowess, adaptability and empirical knowledge as defining qualities in British and Anglo Indian children. Furthermore, Goswami's analysis of early nineteenth century children's texts written by women authors redresses the preoccupation with male authors and boys' adventure stories that have largely informed discussions of juvenility in the context of colonial India. This groundbreaking book also seeks to open up the canon by examining early twentieth century Bengali children's texts that not only draw literary inspiration from nineteenth century British children's literature but whose themes are equally shaped by empire.

The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Indian Aesthetics and the Philosophy of Art
 Arindam Chakrabarti, 2016-02-25. The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Indian Aesthetics and the Philosophy of Art provides an extensive research resource to the burgeoning field of Asian aesthetics. Featuring leading international scholars and teachers whose work defines the field, this unique volume reflects the very best scholarship in creative, analytic and comparative philosophy. Beginning with a philosophical reconstruction of the classical rasa aesthetics, chapters range from the nature of art, emotions, tones of thinking and aesthetic education to issues in film theory and problems of the past versus present. As well as discussing indigenous versus foreign in aesthetic practices, this volume covers North and South Indian performance practices and theories alongside recent and new themes including the Gandhian aesthetics of surrender and self control and the aesthetics of touch in the light of the politics of untouchability. With such unparalleled and authoritative coverage, The Bloomsbury Research Handbook of Indian Aesthetics and the Philosophy of Art represents a dynamic map of comparative cross cultural aesthetics. Bringing together original philosophical research from renowned thinkers, it makes a major contribution to both Eastern and Western contemporary aesthetics.

Children's Literature and Intergenerational Relationships Justyna Deszcz-Tryhubczak, Irena Barbara Kalla, 2021-04-23. Children's Literature and Intergenerational Relationships: Encounters of the Playful Kind explores ways in which children's literature becomes the object and catalyst of play that brings younger and older generations closer to one another Providing examples from diverse cultural and historical contexts this collection argues that children s texts promote intergenerational play through the use of literary devices and graphic formats and that they may prompt joint play practices in the real world The book offers a distinctive contribution to children s literature scholarship by shifting critical attention away from the difference and conflict between children and adults to the exploration of inter age interdependencies as equally crucial aspects of human life presenting a new perspective for all who research and work with children s culture in times of global aging

Translation as Growth Udaya Narayana Singh, 2010 The Rays before Satyajit Chandak Sengoopta, 2016-05-04 In the history of Indian cinema the name of Satyajit Ray needs no introduction However what remains unvoiced is the contribution of his forebears and their tryst with Indian modernity Be it in art advertising and printing technology or in nationalism feminism and cultural reform the earlier Rays attempted to create forms of the modern that were uniquely Indian and cosmopolitan at the same time Some of the Rays especially Upendrakishore and his son Sukumar are iconic figures in Bengal But even Bengali historiography is almost exclusively concerned with the family s contributions to children s literature However as this study highlights the family also played an important role in engaging with new forms of cultural modernity Apart from producing literary works of enduring significance they engaged in diverse reformist endeavours The first comprehensive work in English on the pre Satyajit generations The Rays before Satyajit is more than a collective biography of an extraordinary family It interweaves the Ray saga with the larger history of Indian modernity      Sukumar Ray Subhadra Sen Gupta,2003 Sukumar Ray was the first humorist in Bengali literature His witty poems anarchic plays and hilarious stories have enchanted many generations of readers Many phrases invented by him have become a part of the Bengali language Sukumar Ray introduced humour to Indian Literature and his irrepressible voice still fills our lives with an innocent insanity and the unadulterated joy of laughter

They deployed these innovations to interrogate fundamental philosophical questions of modernity. Issues central to modern European social theory grew into significant themes within Indian literary reflection such as the influence of modernity on the nature of the self, the nature of historicity, the problem of evil, the character of power under the conditions of modern history, and the experience of power as felt by an individual subject of the modern state. How does modern politics affect the personality of a sensitive individual? Is love possible between intensely self-conscious people, and how do individuals cope with the transience of affections or the fragility of social ties? Kaviraj argues that these inquiries inform the heart of modern Indian literary tradition, and that writers such as Bankimchandra Chattopadhyay, Rabindranath Tagore, and Sibnath Sastri performed immeasurably important work helping readers to think through the predicament of modern times.

Art and Nationalism in Colonial India, 1850-1922 Partha Mitter, 1994 Partha Mitter's book is a pioneering study of the history of modern art on the Indian subcontinent from 1850 to 1922. The author tells the story of Indian art during the Raj, set against the interplay of colonialism and nationalism. The work addresses the tensions and contradictions that attended the advent of European naturalism in India as part of the imperial design for the westernisation of the elite, and traces the artistic evolution from unquestioning westernisation to the construction of Hindu national identity. Through a wide range of literary and pictorial sources, Art and Nationalism in Colonial India balances the study of colonial cultural institutions and networks with the ideologies of the nationalist and intellectual movements which followed. The result is a book of immense significance both in the context of South Asian history and in the wider context of art history.

Words Without Borders Alane Salierno Mason, Dedi Felman, Samantha Schnee, 2007-03-13 Featuring the work of more than 28 writers from upwards of 20 countries, this collection transports us to the frontiers of twenty-first century literature. In these pages, some of the most accomplished writers in world literature, among them Edwidge Danticat, Ha Jin, Cynthia Ozick, Javier Marías, and Nobel laureates Wole Soyinka, Günter Grass, Czesław Miłosz, Wisława Szymborska, and Naguib Mahfouz, have stepped forward to introduce us to dazzling literary talents virtually unknown to readers of English. Most of their work—short stories, poems, essays, and excerpts from novels—appears here in English for the first time. The Romanian writer Norman Manea shares with us the sexy, sinister, and thrillingly avant-garde fiction of his homeland's leading female novelist. The Indian writer Amit Chaudhuri spotlights the Bengali writer Parashuram, whose hilarious comedy of manners imagines what might have happened if Britain had been colonized by Bengal. And Roberto Calasso writes admiringly of his fellow Italian Giorgio Manganelli, whose piece celebrates the Indian city of Madurai. Every piece here, be it from the Americas, Africa, Europe, the Middle East, South Asia, East Asia, Southeast Asia, or the Caribbean, is a discovery, a colorful thread in a global weave of literary exchange.
