Home Care Fault Lines Cynthia J. Cranford, 2020-06-15 In this revealing look at home care Cynthia J Cranford illustrates how elderly and disabled people and the immigrant women workers who assist them in daily activities develop meaningful relationships even when their different ages abilities races nationalities and socioeconomic backgrounds generate tension As Cranford shows workers can experience devaluation within racialized and gendered class hierarchies which shapes their pursuit of security Cranford analyzes the tensions alliances and compromises between security for workers and flexibility for elderly and disabled people and she argues that workers and recipients negotiate flexibility and security within intersecting inequalities in varying ways depending on multiple interacting dynamics What comes through from Cranford s analysis is the need for deeply democratic alliances across multiple axes of inequality To support both flexible care and secure work she argues for an intimate community unionism that advocates for universal state funding designs culturally sensitive labor market intermediaries run by workers and recipients to help people find jobs or workers and addresses everyday tensions in home workplaces

Propaganda and Information Warfare in the Twenty-First Century Scot

Macdonald,2006-12-05 This is the first book to analyze how the technology to alter images and rapidly distribute them can be used for propaganda and to support deception operations In the past propagandists and those seeking to conduct deception operations used crude methods to alter images of real people events and objects which could usually be detected relatively easily Today however computers allow propagandists to create any imaginable image still or moving with appropriate accompanying audio Furthermore it is becoming extremely difficult to detect that an image has been manipulated and the Internet television and global media make it possible to disseminate altered images around the world almost instantaneously Given that the United States is the sole superpower few if any adversaries will attempt to fight the US military conventionally on the battlefield Therefore adversaries will use propaganda and deception especially altered images in an attempt to level the battlefield or to win a war against the United States without even having to fight militarily Propaganda and Information Warfare in the 21st Century will be of great interest to students of information war propaganda public diplomacy and security studies in general
