Losing And Fusing Borderline Transitional Object And Self Relations:

Losing and Fusing Roger A. m.d. Lewin, Clarence G. Schulz, 1992 Presents a self relations approach to the borderline syndrome The authors look at these difficult patients as having core disorders of affective self identity The therapeutic relationship is the crucial crucible for transformation in the patient s form of his relationship to himself , Rethinking Freedom C. Alford, 2005-05-12 This book examines the use and abuse of the term freedom Based on interviews with people concerning the nature of freedom the author compares what the people he talked with said about freedom with what writers and thinkers such as Jean Paul Sartre Herbert Marcuse and Iris Murdoch have to say about freedom He concludes that the political is not the answer and that most of the people interviewed for the book and those like them would be better served by learning the political and social skills necessary to carve out small spaces of freedom in a rationalized world Strong

Anticipation: Compensating Delay And Distance Susie Vrobel, 2023-12-06 This book is concerned with the notion of strong anticipation Clearly defined necessary and sufficient conditions are laid out The focus lies on strong anticipation as delay and distance compensation as in temporal recalibration and synchronization of coupled systems Of particular interest are delays which correspond to a boundary shift between a systemic whole and its context Such boundary shifts result from assignment conditions which determine what belongs to the systemic whole and what belongs to its context Delay and distance compensation is described along with long range correlations against the background of a theory of time capable of describing anticipative systems My Theory of Fractal Time describes anticipatory systems in terms of two temporal dimensions succession and simultaneity which are defined and measured in tdepth tlength and tdensity These extensions form an extended present and allow a quantified comparison of obserpant observer participants temporal interfaces Compensated delays are revealed as phenomenal blind spots which result in a new kind of relativity What may be compensated for obserpant A is delayed for obserpant B Compensated delays are ubiquitous and can be found in both cognitive and physical processes Examples are temporal recalibration to restore degraded visuomotor adaptation coupling environment and brain biosemiotics and homeostatic processes dynamical diseases embedded and situated robots control loops with inserted or removed delays cellular automata analog and digital notions of trust transitional objects and potential spaces our perception of time and judgement of duration It is proposed that compensated delays emerge as natural laws

Before and After Violence Salman Akhtar,2017-12-18 From childhood onwards humans use their environment s responses to construct models or schemata to link feelings and impulses with actions and effects If the environment during those formative years is unreliable frustrating or violating the construction of those internal models can be disrupted and create a disjointed perception of the world where violence is the only way to feel strong or good about oneself Before and After Violence explores the complex network of experiences and relationships that contribute to both the origins and consequences of violence starting in the early stages of life and compounding over time The contributors to this collection examine the different settings in which violence takes place look at the variables that propel its occurrence in local and global instances and depict how each can be traced back to profound feelings of betrayal helplessness and anger that manifest in the physical discharges of aggression towards a single person or a whole group Through a psychoanalytic lens the contributors analyze and explain violence in its many forms delve into its myriad of causes as well as offer a variety of solutions that can be applied to various instances of violence whether it be physical or mental self directed or other directed

The American Psychiatric Publishing Textbook of Suicide Assessment and Management Robert I. Simon, Robert E. Hales, 2007-04-02 Providing clinically useful information for mental health professionals encountering patients at risk The American Psychiatric Publishing Textbook of Suicide Assessment and Management calls on the authority of 40 expert contributors reflecting a wide range of clinical and forensic experience A New Freudian Synthesis Andrew B. Druck, Carolyn S. Ellman, Norbert Freedman, Aaron Thaler, 2018-05-08 This work presents a vision of contemporary Freudian psychoanalysis The contributors show how modern Freudian analysts have translated and retranslated the contributions of analysts on whose shoulders they stand including Freud Winnicott Loewald Ferenczi and others and synthesized them into a new conception of Freudian theory and technique The opening chapters provide a theoretical overview demonstrating the evolution of Freudian theory and ways in which different theories can be integrated The latter chapters forming the bulk of the volume translate that frame into clinical process Analysts confronted with clinical dilemmas for example patients who cannot for various reasons use interpretations productively find ways to address these dilemmas while deepening the analytic process The reader will find that a new synthesis has taken place in which the relationship with the analyst is a crucial element in setting the stage for patients to take a closer look into their inner world
