Under Old Rooftrees Eliza Benedict Hornby, 1908 Missing Relatives and Lost Friends Robert W. Barnes, 2009-06 Researchers on the trail of elusive ancestors sometimes turn to 18th and early 19th century newspapers after exhausting the first tier of genealogical sources i e census records wills deeds marriages etc Generally speaking early newspapers are not indexed so they require investigators to comb through them looking for the proverbial needle in a haystack With his latest book Robert Barnes has made one aspect of the aforementioned chore much easier This remarkable book contains advertisements for missing relatives and lost friends from scores of newspapers published in Maryland Pennsylvania Delaware and Virginia as well as a few from New York and the District of Columbia The newspaper issues begin in 1719 when the American Weekly Mercury began publication in Philadelphia and run into the early 1800s The author s comprehensive bibliography in the Introduction to the work lists all the newspapers and other sources he examined in preparing the book The volume references 1 325 notices that chronicle the appearance or disappearance of 1 566 persons

A Sociology of Seeking Kieran Flanagan, 2023-01-30 A response to the depletion of the rhetoric of sociology and the spiritual capital of theology this volume explores the remains of Christianity that still lurk as portents in a progressively de Christianised society seeking replacements for belief With the sociologist set in the role of an oracle seeking traces of Christianity in a discipline in which the intrusion of theological understandings has become harder to resist it offers a narrative of belief following the direction of an exemplary portent the finger Through the exploration of broad trends in culture and modern history this study informed by interactionist thought examines both the place of sociology in Christian theology and the failure of theology to connect to its surrounding culture asking how the two disciplines might meld profitably together As such it will appeal to social theorists and theologians as well as sociologists with interests in religion culture and secularisation I am searching for my lost donkey! Gery Malanda, We are all searching for what we think

Chosen for Christ Heather Holleman, 2018-10-02 Do you long to know your unique purpose? Do you feel you have a calling but wonder how to fulfill it? As we pursue a sense of purpose and scramble to be the ones chosen for internships graduate schools marriages careers or some special honor we often tie our identity to people places and clear plans that leave us frustrated and unfulfilled. We feel like we're missing the life we're supposed to live and we somehow veered off course. We ask questions like Is this God's plan for me? How do I know? What is His plan?

anyway What if Scripture not only answered these questions but also taught us an entirely new way of living Instead of waiting for the perfect person place or plan what if we lived above all else as chosen for Christ Chosen for Christ invites you to step into the life you ve been missing You were chosen for a Person not a plan Now it s time to live out your calling to worship Jesus live as His treasured possession belong to a new household become like Jesus display God s power complete the good works He designed for you live differently from the rest of the world In a world fixated on personal purpose and impact Chosen for Christ presents a new way to think about calling Each chapter includes discussion questions that will help women embrace their identity as chosen ones and step into a new way of living each new day Chosen for Christ completes Heather Holleman s vivid verbs trilogy which also includes Seated with Christ and Guarded by Christ It works wonderfully as a stand alone book or as a powerful companion to her previous works It also provides an expansion of ideas that appear briefly in Holleman s devotional Included in Christ
