The Geography of God's Incarnation Ann Pederson,2013-07-25 What does geography have to do with the incarnation of God and with our spiritual lives as Christians We will embark on a theological road trip that explores how geographies are at the heart of understanding of God s incarnation in the world It is no surprise to Christians that the center of the incarnation is the person of Jesus Christ God in flesh made manifest However it might be a stretch for some Christians to imagine that the promise that God has become flesh is not only in a person but also in a place in the creation Christians need to expand what incarnation means and what it means to be created in the image of God so that the scope of God s creative and redemptive action and work indeed reaches to the scope of all things
