Boon, 2012-01-01 Ultimately I propose that considering internalization as embodiment is a critical methodological shift in understanding mystical methods in general and especially for probing recollection mysticism in depth The inner man as opposed to the outer man is a Pauline and Lutheran commonplace that is too frequently taken out of context leading historians of the Renaissance in general and of Spanish Renaissance religion in particular to value references to internal or mental methods of spirituality as an improvement over external or bodily rituals This book takes its cue from the recent cognitive turn in medieval studies that complicates studies of the body in religion by focusing on the embodied aspects of cognition claiming a continuum between body and soul rather than a hierarchy I argue that medieval theories of cognition made the divorce of the body from the soul impossible for a Galenic doctor even one who spoke of the body and the world with contempt and by implication impossible for his Castilian audience Without serious consideration of Laredo's reliance on an embodied soul rather than on a body-soul dualism therefore no proper assessment of the unitive stage of recogimiento can be made Introduction p 6 7 The Atlantis: a register of literature and science Dublin city, univ. coll, 1858 Evolutionary Communication James Lull, 2019-11-28 Evolutionary Communication presents the first comprehensive evolutionary approach to the study of human communication Presuming no specialized knowledge of evolutionary theory this reader friendly textbook explains why and how communication became the determining factor in human development Drawing from the latest scientific research Evolutionary Communication represents a truly groundbreaking contribution to Communication Studies as a field of study Opening up an inspiring new approach for teaching communication the book can be used as a core volume or supplemental text for courses ranging from Introduction to Communication and Communication Theory to special topics and graduate seminars Global Developments in Literacy Research for Science Education Kok-Sing Tang, Kristina Danielsson, 2018-01-19 This book highlights recent developments in literacy research in science teaching and learning from countries such as Australia Brazil China Finland Germany Hong Kong New Zealand Norway Singapore Spain South Africa Sweden Taiwan and the United States It includes multiple topics and

EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE Raymundo Ramirez,2021-09-03 Did you know that human beings are 100% emotional Who or what produces these emotions In the past it was believed that the heart was responsible for these stimuli Neuroscience studies have shown that neurons in the brain are responsible for creating emotions To hear a child cry or to see an old man laugh is an outpouring of emotions to listen to a dog bark to see a mother's concern for a child in danger to hear a little bird sing on a tree branch to see an employee whistle in the aisles of a warehouse to hear a woman cry in the emergency room or to witness the birth of a child all these actions are expressions of emotions that to some extent affect and move the person who is feeling them and even people around them these emotions send different emotional messages such as fear sadness anger pain loneliness joy satisfaction happiness etc What would happen if we could control the negative emotions that affect us daily We can do it so we get to be emotionally balanced people As a result we would be likely to be happier Cognitive Approaches to Early Modern Spanish Literature Isabel Jaén,Julien Jacques Simon,2016 Cognitive Approaches to Early Modern Spanish Literature is the first anthology exploring human cognition and literature in the context of early modern Spanish culture It includes the leading voices in the field along with the main themes and directions that this important area of study has been producing The book begins with an overview of the cognitive literary studies research that has been taking place within early modern Spanish studies over the last fifteen years Next it traces the creation of self in the context of the novel focusing on Cervantes's Don Quixote in relation to the notions of embodiment and autopoiesis as well as the faculties of memory and imagination as understood in early modernity It continues to explore the concept of embodiment showing its relevance to delve into the mechanics of the interaction between actors and audience both in the jongleuresque and the comedia traditions It then centers on cognitive theories of perception the psychology of immersion in fictional worlds and early modern and modern day notions of intentionality to discuss the role of perceiving and understanding others in performance Don Quixote and courtly conduct manuals The last section focuses on the affective dimension of audience performer interactions in the theatrical space of the Spanish corrales and how emotion and empathy can inform new approaches to presenting Las Casas's work in the literature classroom The volume closes with an afterword offering strategies to design a course on mind and literature in early modernity History and Philosophy of the Life Sciences ,1993

Pedagogía de los sentidos Consuelo Santamaría Repiso,2018-01-29 Los sentidos son las ventanas por las que el ser humano sale de su yo interior y se relaciona con todo lo que le rodea Por medio de los sentidos captamos toda la información que recibimos a través de la vista del oído del gusto etc los sentidos nos llenan de sensaciones y estas nos pueden proporcionar bienestar o malestar Con frecuencia nuestros sentidos tienen interferencias voluntarias o involuntarias que

elevan el term metro emocional y pueden producir una alta fiebre interior capaz de generar una elevada dosis de sufrimiento Los sentidos son susceptibles de ser educados por ello el an lisis de cada uno de los sentidos que proponemos lo vamos a construir desde el mbito educativo ya que la reflexi n sobre los sentidos forma parte de un contenido educativo y por tanto formador ense able y en consecuencia objeto de aprendizaje te rico pr ctico y experiencial The Atlantis ,1859
