David Miranda-Barreiro, 2017-07-05 In the early decades of the twentieth century New York caught the attention of Spanish writers Many of them visited the city and returned to tell their experience in the form of a literary text That is the case of Pruebas de Nueva York 1927 by Jose Moreno Villa 1887 1955 El crisol de las razas 1929 by Teresa de Escoriaza 1891 1968 Anticipolis 1931 by Luis de Oteyza 1883 1961 and La ciudad automatica 1932 by Julio Camba 1882 1962 In tune with similar representations in other European works the image of New York given in these texts reflects the tensions and anxieties generated by the modernisation embodied by the United States These authors project onto New York their concerns and expectations about issues of class gender and ethnicity that were debated at the time in the context of the crisis of Spanish national identity triggered by the end of the empire in 1898

Carmen Mart n Gait e Ester Bautista Botello, 2019-01-09 This book reconstructs the poetics of Carmen Mart n Gait e by viewing the concept of journey as a fundamental principle upon which she bases and elaborates her narrative writing of the 1990s Five novels published in this period receive critical attention all of which coincide with the last trips taken by the writer to New York Caperucita en Manhattan 1990 Nubosidad variable 1992 La reina de las nieves 1994 Lo raro es vivir 1996 and Irse de casa 1998 To the extent that the journey is the essence of the narrative under consideration the concept is analysed as an aesthetic practice and an attempt to identify a series of actions which allow us to link the writer s novels with two areas that have previously received only scant critical scrutiny geography and the visual dimension This book presents a comparative and interdisciplinary analysis of space in Mart n Gait e s narrative as well as in her collages drawings and paintings
