Literary Representations of Japan: At the Intersection of David Mitchell and Haruki Murakami's Worlds Eugenia Prasol, 2023-09-12

This book will focus on analyzing the different aspects of Japan's representation in the novels of Haruki Murakami and David Mitchell It is proven that Murakami creates and recreates Japan without implementing any orientalist features or exotic imagery In the works of both authors the intent to depict a new world of Japan stripped of traditional stereotypical traits becomes clear

The difference between Murakami and Mitchell's representation of Japan lies in the difference between Japan as seen by the Japanese and Japan as seen by modern Westerners but both are correct images of Japan It is a recreation of the global image of Japan In that sense the texts of Murakami and Mitchell are complementary representations of Japan through East West cultural dialogue

Studying the representations of Japan and Japanese national character helps to understand the role of Murakami and Mitchell in the formation of a new image of Japan the de-stereotyping of anachronistic ideas about Japanese national exclusivity enriching by doing so the world literature with new visions of the country and its culture

The purpose of the comparative analysis of English and Japanese literary works performed in this work is to reveal both deep analogies and differences in the representation of the image of Japan actualizing the national specificity of the texts

This research advances the understanding of how both general and specific components of literary representations of Japan and Japaneseness are manifested in the East West cultural dialogue

Contemporary Trauma Narratives Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2014-06-27 This book provides a comprehensive compilation of essays on the relationship between formal experimentation and ethics in a number of generically hybrid or liminal narratives dealing with individual and collective traumas running the spectrum from the testimonial novel and the fictional autobiography to the fake memoir written by a variety of famous, more neglected contemporary British, Irish, US, Canadian and German writers. Building on the psychological insights and theorizing of the fathers of trauma studies, Janet Freud, Ferenczi and of contemporary trauma critics and theorists, the articles examine the narrative strategies, structural experimentations and hybridizations of forms, paying special attention to the way in which the texts fight the unrepresentability of trauma by performing rather than representing it. The ethicality or unethicity involved in this endeavor is assessed from the combined perspectives of the non-foundational, non-cognitive, discursive ethics of alterity inspired by Emmanuel Levinas and the ethics of vulnerability. This approach makes Contemporary Trauma Narratives an excellent resource for scholars of contemporary literature, trauma studies and literary theory.

Reading Theories in Contemporary Fiction Lisa McNally, 2013-04-25 Even after the upheavals wrought by Theory, literary criticism has generally ignored the act and experience of reading itself, proceeding as though something so fundamental to our experience of texts could be taken for granted. Reading Theories in Contemporary Fiction draws on deconstruction and the thought of Jacques Derrida to explore the ways in which contemporary fiction engages with reading, its power, the elusive nature of its experience and the failures of understanding inherent in it. Along the way, the book proceeds through close readings of such authors as J. M. Coetzee, David Mitchell, Toni Morrison and Philip Roth.

Experimental Fiction Julie Armstrong, 2014-08-28 Ever since Ezra Pound's exhortation to make it new, experimentation has been a hallmark of contemporary literature. Ranging from the modernists through the Beats to postmodernism and contemporary hyperfiction this is a unique introduction to experimental fiction Creative exercises throughout the book help students grapple with the many varieties of experimental fiction for themselves deepening their understanding of these many forms and developing their own writing skills In addition the book examines the historical contexts and major themes of 20th century experimental fiction and new directions for the novel offered by writers such as David Shields and Zadie Smith Making often difficult works accessible for the first time reader and with extensive further reading guides Experimental Fiction is an essential practical guidebook for students of creative writing and contemporary fiction Writers covered include James Joyce Virginia Woolf Franz Kafka Marcel Proust Ralph Ellison Allen Ginsberg Jack Kerouac William Gibson Italo Calvino Jeanette Winterson Don DeLillo Caitlin Fisher Geoff Ryman Xiaolu Guo Tom McCarthy James Frey and David Mitchell
