Nurturing Faith in Children Kelly Belcher,2020-09 In this book you will find 52 children s sermons one sermon for each Sunday in the church year Each sermon is based on a focus passage with a short portion of the passage noted as a memory verse The author has provided a bit of background to summarize the focus of each children s sermon Most of the children s sermons presented in the book include objects or props to help bring the words to life for the children The props are included in the Items for Preparation list before each sermon Each children s sermon concludes with a prayer which is usually an opportunity for the children to repeat the simple prayer as the leader says each line Children learn religious practices through modeling and practice your prayers can introduce young hearts to the language of prayer Let these sermons serve as a guide Adapt them as you see fit so that your group of children will grasp their meaning and grow in their understanding of spiritual themes As you spend time with children in worship count it a privilege to convey to your children a love of scripture a passion for learning a desire to know the heart of God and a love for the wonderful stories of the Bible The Ultimate Jewish Teacher's Handbook Nachama Skolnik Moskowitz,2003 This complete and comprehensive resource for teachers new and experienced alike offers a big picture look at the goals of Jewish education Nurturing Faith Through the Stages of Life ,1998 This reproducible resource book provides glimpses into what it means to nurture faith through the stages of life Intergenerational Catechesis timone a davis,2021-03-12 In this work the author moves away from youth centered catechesis toward a catechetical method that gets at the heart of faith formation for ALL generations storytelling In the African American storytelling tradition both the storyteller and listener are important they embody the story What happens in the story exchange process is the discovery of connections The author s method of African American storytelling My Story Your Story brings to life the Christian story through our shared experiences Intergenerational catechesis invites us to see ourselves and one another across time through eyes that are young middle aged and elderly Based on an understanding of family intergenerational catechesis moves away from the domestic church as a starting point for growing in faith to the community as a starting point Where the domestic church focuses on those who live in the household intergenerational catechesis focuses on everyone in the Church community single persons divorced persons widows widowers teens young adults pre school and elementary children parents grandparents aunts and uncles In highlighting our connections we are better able to see ourselves and one another differently When we see ourselves and others transformed faith is revitalized Face-to-Face with Lois and Eunice Janet Thompson,2012-01-01 Lois and Eunice followed the numerous Scriptures instructing one generation to pass on their faith to the next generation and young Timothy grew up to be a second generation leader of the early church Often mentoring focuses on reaching out to others but as parents and grandparents the first line of mentoring should be within your own family a concept repeated throughout the Bible The Bible has many devastating examples of parents who were poor role models or didn t rear their children to know God as well good and faithful parents whose children wandered away from God Face to Face with Lois and Eunice focuses on how women today can be grandmothers mothers aunts and mentors whose faith takes root in the next generation
