Old Macau:

Wartime Macau Geoffrey C. Gunn, 2016-11-01 It has intrigued many that unlike Hong Kong Macau avoided direct Japanese wartime occupation albeit being caught up in the vortex of the wider global conflict Geoffrey Gunn and an international group of contributors come together in Wartime Macau Under the Japanese Shadow to investigate how Macau escaped the fate of direct Japanese invasion and occupation Exploring the broader diplomatic and strategic issues during that era this volume reveals that the occupation of Macau was not in Japan's best interest because the Portuguese administration in Macau posed no threat to Japan's control over the China coast and acted as a listening post to monitor Allied activities Drawing upon archival materials in English Japanese Portuguese and other languages the contributors explain how under the high duress of Japanese military agencies the Portuguese administration coped with a tripling of its population and issues such as currency food supply disease and survival This volume presents contrasting views on wartime governance and shows how the different levels of Macau society survived the war Wartime Macau deals with a fascinating and woefully understudied topic The essays collected here show that there was no singular experience of World War II in Macau how one experienced the war depended on a complex calculus of ethnicity class and connections And yet taken together these experiences shaped the trajectory of the city's political and social development for decades to come Cathryn H Clayton University of Hawai'i at Mānoa This book represents a real breakthrough Previous English language accounts of Macau during the World War II have focused largely on the activities of the British in this neutral Casablanca Drawing extensively on Portuguese Japanese and local Macanese sources Geoffrey Gunn and his team have assembled a far broader picture revealing the dilemmas and choices of Portugal's beleaguered colonial government and placing Macau in a geopolitical context that stretched from the Azores to Australia Philip Snow author of The Fall of Hong Kong The A to Z of the Hong Kong SAR and the Macao SAR Ming K. Chan, Sonny Shiu-Hing Lo, 2010-04-01 The Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China is located on the southeastern coast of China and the Macao SAR can be found off of China's southern coast Both regions have recently been released from European colonial rule Hong Kong from British control in 1997 and Macao from Portugal in 1999 As SARs Hong Kong and Macao retain a high degree of autonomy and they control all issues except those of state e.g. diplomatic relations and national defense The A to Z of the Hong Kong SAR and the Macao SAR includes maps photographs a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons places and events as well as political economic and social background However unlike the rest of the series all these sections are presented in duplicate one for Hong Kong and one for Macao The authoritative analysis and informative data presented clearly elucidate the unique situation of these two territories China Briefing's Business Guide to the Greater Pearl River Delta, 2004 I Do It All Don Bozarth, 2022-11-03 Living life at full speed ahead while traveling the world and competing in two different sports made it feel like life could not

Chinese Art and Its Encounter with the World David Clarke, 2011-08-01 Chinese Art and Its Encounter with the World examines Chinese art from the mid eighteenth century to the present beginning with discussion of a Chinese portrait modeler from Canton who traveled to London in 1769 and ending with an analysis of art and visual culture in post colonial Hong Kong By means of a series of six closely focused case studies often deliberately introducing non canonical or previously marginalized aspects of Chinese visual culture it analyzes Chinese art's encounter with the broader world and in particular with the West Offering more than a simple charting of influences it uncovers a pattern of richly mutual interchange between Chinese art and its others Arguing that we cannot fully understand modern Chinese art without taking this expanded global context into account it attempts to break down barriers between areas of art history which have hitherto largely been treated within separate and often nationally conceived frames Aware that issues of cultural difference need to be addressed by art historians as much as by artists it represents a pioneering attempt to produce art historical writing which is truly global in approach David Clarke is Professor in the Department of Fine Arts University of Hong Kong
