Daisy Ashford was just nine years old when she penned or rather penciled The Young Visitors in her notebook As an adult she found the manuscript along with other childhood writings and showed them to her literary friends for a laugh They were so delighted that they passed them around their circle The unexpected result was a publishing deal with J M Barrie creator of Peter Pan writing the preface So clever was the book that some assumed Barrie himself had written the entire thing as an elaborate hoax The story's hero is Alfred Salteena a polite but bumbling man who hopes to learn the ways of the elite He is in love with a younger woman Ethel but a love triangle with his friend Bernard soon emerges The characters attend sumshious balls stay in lavish compartments and wear elaborate get ups all of it rendered in Ashford's original childish spelling The story reads like a pastiche of high society and even a parody of the Victorian novel The Young Visitors was published in 1919 and was reprinted eighteen times in that year alone It has been adapted into a play a musical and multiple film versions

Ashford's other juvenile writings were later published including The Hangman's Daughter a short novel she considered her finest work. As an adult she did not continue to write.
