Lost And Found A Woman Revisits 8th Grade:

Lost and Found Roberta Israeloff, 1997-10-14 Revisiting her past through old journals and diaries author Roberta Israeloff traces her passage from self confident tomboy to a teenager trying to understand what it means to be female in today's society Her recollections juxtaposed with thoughts on her current life capture from a personal perspective the journey to womanhood Will appeal to readers of REVIVING OPHELIA Library Journal, 2006 Cultural Amnesia Stephen Bertman, 2000-02-28 Applying the metaphor of Alzheimer's disease to our national state of mind Bertman offers a chilling prognosis for our country's future unless radical steps for recovery are taken He looks beyond the classroom to the larger social forces that conspire to alienate Americans from their past a materialistic creed that celebrates transience and disposability and an electronic faith that worships the present to the exclusion of all other dimensions of time Jacket

Literacy and Culture College of Education University of Massachusetts Amherst Lund and Carr bring together a superb collection of authors who collectively challenge readers to go beyond liberal platitudes about race until educators confront the political social and economic consequences of inequitably distributed privilege the path towards equality and freedom will remain elusive By immersing us in the discourse of Whiteness the essays in this book illuminate that very path Joel Westheimer University Research Chair Professor Faculty of Education University of Ottawa
