Significant Others William E. Burgwinkle, Glenn Man, Valerie Wayne, 1993-01-01 Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema Hans Bernhard Moeller, George L. Lellis, 2012-10-31 Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema Adaptation Politics and the Movie Appropriate examines the work of major postwar German director Volker Schlöndorff in historical economic and artistic contexts Incorporating a film by film twenty eight chapter study Hans Bernhard Moeller George Lellis reveal a complexity and formal ambitiousness of Schlöndorff that is comparable to that found in Wenders Herzog and Fassbinder In spite of Schlöndorff's successes with films like The Lost Honor of Katharina Blum and The Tin Drum as well as his acclaimed work in the U S with Death of a Salesman Gathering of Old Men and The Handmaid's Tale this is the first in depth critical study of the filmmaker's career In the context of film and television history this book relates Schlöndorff's oeuvre to the New German Cinema to his

formative years as a student and production assistant in France and to his roots in the Weimar cinema's tradition. It reveals how Schlöndorff entered into the German film production system in the 1960s, how he came to rely on German public television in the 1970s and then moved to the international and American financing in the 1980s, attempting to redevelop the Babelsberg studios in a 1990s post-Wall Germany while continuing to make his own films into the 21st century. The book captures how Schlöndorff's nearly half-century of ongoing creativity and productivity ties together. The authors analyze the artistry of each Schlöndorff movie, arguing that his output as a whole embodies a provocative and sometimes contradictory set of balances. Schlöndorff combines commercial interest with significant artistic ambition, blends the kinesthetic pleasures of moving images with the seriousness of fine literature, links the intensity of individualized personal experience to an awareness of broader political issues, and represents a specifically German sensibility even as he reaches out to the international audiences. The authors demonstrate the cyclical recurrence in his cinema of certain themes: individual and collective rebellion, fascist suppression, masochistic love, narrative patterns: the Western, the thriller, the subjective mood piece, and stylistic approaches: Brechtian Verfremdung, the creation of careful leitmotif structures, the use of the grotesque. In over thirty years of filmmaking, Schlöndorff has produced a remarkable unified body of work that deserves the attention of a book-length study. Authors Hans Bernhard Moeller and George Lellis offer the first such study of its kind. Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema: Adaptation, Politics, and the Movie. Appropriate features: forty-one illustrations. Storytelling for Film and Television Ken Dancyger, 2019-04-30. Storytelling for Film and Television is a theory and practice book which offers a definitive introduction to the art of storytelling through writing, directing, and editing. Author Ken Dancyger provides a comprehensive explanation of the tools that underpin successful narrative filmmaking and television production. The book takes a unique approach by connecting the different phases of the creative process of film and television production. It shows how writing, directing, and editing all contribute to the process of storytelling and function together to advance the narrative goals of a screenplay to tell the best story. A case study approach provides numerous examples of effectiveness and brings together the core areas of aesthetics and production to make these concepts more accessible. Case studies include classic and modern films, foreign films, limited and series television, with examples including Breaking Bad, Game of Thrones, The Revenant, and Son of Saul. This is the ideal text for film and television production students at all levels. It is written in a style which makes it accessible to anybody interested in learning more about the storytelling process and is written for a global audience, addressing a global industry. The Female Gaze Alicia Malone, 2018-11-15. A Comparative Study of Female-Themed Art Films from China and Germany Ning Xu, 2017-01-17. This book explores female-themed art films from China and Germany and seeks to illustrate how the cultural difference between the ways of representing women and narrating women's themes is shown in both countries' films by means of analyzing two film elements: mise en scène and cinematography. This book analyzes female-themed art films in five topics: Marriage and Love, Birth and Motherhood, Professional Women and Housewives, Death and Despair, and Dreams and Destiny. Screening the Red Army Faction Christina Gerhardt, 2018-07-12. Screening the Red Army Faction: Historical and Cultural Memory explores representations of the Red Army Faction (RAF) in print media, film, and art, locating an analysis of these texts in the historical and political context of unfolding events. In this way, the book contributes both a new history and a new cultural history of post-fascist era West Germany that grapples with the fledgling republic's most pivotal debates about the nature of democracy and authority, about violence, its motivations, and regulation, and about its cultural afterlife. Looking back at the history of representations of the RAF in various media, this book considers how our understanding of the Cold War era, of the long sixties, and of the RAF is created and re-created through cultural texts.
