Water Into Bones Erin K. Nourse, 2025 Water into Bones explores the spiritual importance of water in Madagascar Families in northern Madagascar conceptualize water as a spiritual realm where magical creatures and some ancestors live and believe that infants are born with a special connection to the spirit world that makes them still full of water mbola rano and lacking bones Over the course of their lives the water is transformed into bone and lives end as entombed bones which symbolize their legacy as ancestors and become objects of their descendants care and remembrance Author Erin Nourse examines the ways that Malagasy women in the northern port city of Di go Suarez actively enable their infants to acquire bones and establish belonging within their communities Navigating diverse social environments that enable them to draw from various religious ethnic and familial traditions to welcome babies into their families Malagasy mothers secure their children s status as distinctive individuals who are also firmly grounded in their ancestral legacies Water into Bones reveals the vast possibilities for creating community identity and sacred power through the personal experiences of northern Malagasy women during pregnancy childbirth and parenthood Love Food, Can't Cook? Lara DePetrillo, Caroline Eastman-Bridges, 2010-11-04 Are you tired of getting cooking tips from people who can't even remember what it's like to need them? The shelves are full of people who can tell you how to bake a better pie but will they remember to tell you that if you have cheap or old tins you have to line them with baking paper so that you can get the food to come out of them? That's where LOVE FOOD CAN'T COOK comes in. Lara DePetrillo and Caroline Eastman Bridges remove the intimidation from cooking and offer a light-hearted, smart and funny approach to making great food from your own kitchen without fancy gadgets and over-complicated instructions. In this heartwarming guide to food in all its forms you will find superb recipes, amazing facts and invaluable tips to creating fabulous meals at home. A Study Guide for Sara Gruen's "Water for Elephants" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Sara Gruen's Water for Elephants excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Literary Newsmakers for Students. This concise study guide includes plot summary, character analysis, author biography, study questions, historical context, suggestions for further reading and much more. For any literature project, trust Literary Newsmakers for Students for all of your research needs. Love's Meinie John Ruskin, 1881 Water Look Away Bob Hicok, 2023-08-22 Bob Hicok's Water Look Away is an experimental conversation with the highest and lowest facets of humanity. Once a man who sometimes wanted to kill himself loved a woman who sometimes wanted to live. In Bob Hicok's Water Look Away we witness a brilliant poet enter a dark space and attempt to write himself out again. Told in experimental forms from a range of perspectives: a wife who commits suicide, a husband left behind, this raw collection reads like a novella and wrestles with loss as it complicates the grief process. Working backwards from acceptance to explore depression and anger, heartbreak and remorse, often with great tenderness, Water Look Away offers pages of insight that will make you reach for a pen. Here poetry embalms a marriage, an experimental affair, a series of miscarriages, a red bed painted on a wall. When the retelling of their first meeting morphs from recounting to dreampage, Hicok asks how long can we trust memory when those we love are no longer there to remember with us. These are not passive poems; period placement, unconventional spellings and neologisms invite an active reader who is prepared to question meaning and intention. A present collection written in the past tense, these lines make you want to hold your loved ones closer and prove that while this collection is no fairytale, it is still a love story of husband and wife of poetry and language. Within every poem is an undeniable love for words and a vulnerable appeal to individuals who share this affinity for language. I'm always reading. Turning the pages of your face. Dog-eared the way you smiled. Love's Meinie. Lectures on Greek and English Birds, ... Lectures 1, 2 John Ruskin, 1881 Qigong for Staying Young Shoshanna Katzman, 2003-10-27 Gentle movements from the ancient Chinese art of self-healing and fitness to maintain youthful health and vitality. Shoshanna Katzman introduces readers to the practice of qigong through her graceful twenty-minute program that incorporates postures, breath, sound, visualization and self massage This revitalizing workout will help women of all ages maintain youthful skin eyes and hair improve fitness and renew energy Readers can then customize their routine as the author explains how to apply the healing powers of qigong along with herbal and dietary remedies to specific age related concerns such as arthritis osteoporosis menopause weight gain and decreased sexual vitality

Deep Water Pamela Freeman,2009-04-01 Centuries ago Acton and his people displaced the Travellers the original inhabitants of the Eleven Domains Now Saker the enchanter is driven by this ancient rage With the bones of his fallen ancestors and the blood from his own veins he will raise armies of the dead to slake his revenge But what really happened when Acton came through Death Pass a millennium ago To find out Bramble agrees to risk her life and perhaps her soul on a voyage of discovery Will she find the simple answer she needs or will her experiences shatter her deepest beliefs Meanwhile Ash tormented by his past must return to the Deep to find his father and uncover the Travellers secret songs He thought he had learnt all the ancient music What has his father kept from him and why The truth like all their destinies is hidden in time and lies in deep water
