German Women's Life Writing and the Holocaust Elisabeth Krimmer, 2018-09-20 Examines women's life writing in order to shed light on female complicity in the Second World War and the Holocaust

Holocaust Testimonies Thomas Pegelow Kaplan, Wolf Gruner, Miriam Offer, Boaz Cohen, 2025-05-15 Close to a time when there will be no more survivors to speak about their suffering this innovative study takes much needed stock of the past present and future of Holocaust testimony Drawing from a vast range of witness accounts including a never before published survivor interview and carefully situating analysis within broader historical and political discourses this international team of scholars address many pertinent issues of testimony in the post witness age These include questions of representation and testimony form memory politics and the role of the witness the legacy of the Holocaust and impact on future generations the digital turn and issues of access and gender and testimony in the wake of MeToo Stressing the importance of re-assessing re-contextualizing and re-presenting testimonies these essays make a powerful case for the ongoing centrality of witnesses and witnessing in Holocaust research education and memory In doing so Holocaust Testimonies skillfully paves the way for future research with survivor testimonies

Sentient Performativities of Embodiment Lynette Hunter, Elisabeth Krimmer, Peter Lichtenfels, 2016-05-05 This collection offers writings on the body with a focus on performance defined as both staged performance and everyday performance Traditionally theorizations of the body have either analyzed its impact on its socio-historical environment or treated the body as a self enclosed semiotic and affective system This collection makes a conscious effort to merge these two approaches It is interested in interactions between bodies and other bodies bodies and environments and bodies and objects

Jews, Germans, and Allies Atina Grossmann, 2009-08-10 In the immediate aftermath of World War II more than a quarter million Jewish survivors of the

Holocaust lived among their defeated persecutors in the chaotic society of Allied occupied Germany Jews Germans and Allies draws upon the wealth of diary and memoir literature by the people who lived through postwar reconstruction to trace the conflicting ways Jews and Germans defined their own victimization and survival comprehended the trauma of war and genocide and struggled to rebuild their lives In gripping and unforgettable detail Atina Grossmann describes Berlin in the days following Germany's surrender the mass rape of German women by the Red Army the liberated slave laborers and homecoming soldiers returning political exiles Jews emerging from hiding and ethnic German refugees fleeing the East She chronicles the hunger disease and homelessness the fraternization with Allied occupiers and the complexities of navigating a world where the commonplace mingled with the horrific Grossmann untangles the stories of Jewish survivors inside and outside the displaced persons camps of the American zone as they built families and reconstructed identities while awaiting emigration to Palestine or the United States She examines how Germans and Jews interacted and competed for Allied favor benefits and victim status and how they sought to restore normality in work in their relationships and in their everyday encounters Jews Germans and Allies shows how Jews were integral participants in postwar Germany and bridges the divide that still exists today between German history and Jewish studies
