New Arabian Studies Volume 4 J. R. Smart, B. R. Pridham, Gerald Rex Smith, 1997 New Arabian Studies is an international journal covering a wide spectrum of topics including geography archaeology history architecture agriculture language dialect sociology documents literature and religion It provides authoritative information intended to appeal to both the specialist and general reader Both the traditional and the modern aspects of Arabia are covered excluding contemporary controversial politics New Arabian Studies ,2004 The Middle East Ellen M. Lust, 2022 In the newly updated Sixteenth Edition of The Middle East Ellen Lust and contributors comprehensively examine regional trends and offer in depth country profiles to illuminate this vital region Arab Family Studies Suad Joseph, 2018-07-10 Family remains the most powerful social idiom and one of the most powerful social structures throughout the Arab world To engender love of nation among its citizens national movements portray the nation as a family To motivate loyalty political leaders frame themselves as fathers mothers brothers or sisters to their clients parties or the citizenry To stimulate production economic actors evoke the sense of duty and mutual commitment of family obligation To sanctify their edicts clerics wrap religion in the moralities of family and family in the moralities of religion Social and political movements from the most secular to the most religious pull on the tender strings of family love to recruit and bind their members to each other To call someone family is to offer them almost the highest possible intimacy loyalty rights reciprocities and dignity In recognizing the significance of the concept of family this state of the art literature review captures the major theories methods and case studies carried out on Arab families over the past century The book offers a country by country critical assessment of the available scholarship on Arab families Sixteen chapters focus on specific countries or groups of countries seven chapters offer examinations of the literature on key topical issues Joseph's volume provides an indispensable resource to researchers and students and advances Arab family studies as a critical independent field of scholarship Saudi Arabian Foreign Policy Neil Partrick, 2016-02-23 As the only oil producer with sufficient spare capacity to shape the world economy Saudi Arabia is one of the most significant states in twenty first century geopolitics Despite the enormous potential for Saudi Arabia to play a more robust regional and international role the Kingdom faces serious internal and external challenges in the form of political incapacity and competition with states such as Iran In this examination of Saudi Arabia's foreign policy Gulf expert Neil Partrick and other regional analysts address the Kingdom's relations in the Middle East and wider Islamic world and its engagement with both established and emergent global powers In doing so he analyses the factors ranging from identity politics to Iranian acquisition of nuclear weapons that determine the Kingdom's foreign policy As Saudi Arabia prepares for a generational shift brought about by an ageing leadership the rapidly changing balance of power in the Middle East offers both great opportunity and great danger For students of the Middle East and international relations understanding Saudi Arabia's foreign policy and its engagement with the region and the world is more important than ever A very welcome addition to the literature on Saudi Arabia a much needed overview of Saudi foreign policy for scholars and policy makers while also being accessible to the wider public Gabriele vom Bruck Senior Lecturer in the Anthropology of the Middle East SOAS University of London This volume is terrific as a reference and also a good read Michele Dunne Director and Senior Associate Middle East Program Carnegie Endowment for International Peace A timely book to help us understand the history and motivation of the major Sunni regional power This collection of articles covers the whole gamut of Saudi s main external relationships including the role play by Islam and oil in shaping its foreign policy Sir William Patey UK Ambassador to Saudi Arabia 2007 10 The End of Empire in the Gulf Tancred Bradshaw,2019-10-31 With the end of the British Raj in 1947 the Foreign Office replaced the Government of India as the department responsible for the Persian Gulf and would proceed to manage relations with the Trucial States now the United Arab Emirates UAE until British withdrawal in 1971 This work is a comprehensive history of British policy in the region during that period situated for the first time in its broad historical and political context Tancred Bradshaw an academic historian with extensive experience in the region sheds light onto the discovery of oil in Abu Dhabi in the 1950s Foreign Office attempts to instigate a long term development policy in the region the slow end of the British Empire the origins of the UAE and most importantly the British legacy in this geopolitically crucial region today The book relies on 40 000 pages of archival material much of it previously unused and will be of interest to Imperial historians as well as anyone working on the history and politics of the Middle East and the Persian Gulf

Handbook of Rasulid Yemen (13th-15th Centuries CE) Daniel Martin Varisco,2025-09-22 This book is a comprehensive guide to the primary sources and scholarship on Yemen s Rasulid dynasty 13th 15th centuries CE The Rasulids were rivals of the Egyptian Mamluks for influence in Mecca and control over the trade route through the Red Sea The Yemeni port of Aden was an important entrep t along the extensive Red Sea and Indian Ocean trade network The topics covered include geography of their realm political history and administration diplomatic relations with the Mamluks and other governments trade and sailing seasons through Aden weights and measures of Yemen relations with the Zaydi imams and a translation of a Mamluk account of early 14th century Yemen Little attention has been paid in the field of Mamluk studies to the Rasulids who also came into power by overcoming the Ayyubids Beyond the chronicles and biographical texts of the period by Yemeni scholars several of the Rasulid sultans unlike the Mamluk sultans were well educated and wrote on a variety of scientific topics Three archival documents of the Rasulid court provide data on the administrative structure taxation and customs local production and a wide range of information that rarely finds its way into the standard historical chronicles Expats and the Labor Force G. Naufal,I. Genc,2012-10-31 An investigation into the labor force in the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC countries primarily focusing on labor migration and remittances The GCC countries have the highest share of foreign labor in the world The authors examine the multidimensional aspects of such a large foreign population In the Name of the Battle against Piracy ,2018-03-12 In the Name of the Battle against Piracy discusses antipiracy campaigns in Europe and Asia in the 16th 19th centuries Nine contributors argue how important antipiracy campaigns were for the establishment of a colonial state because piracy was a threat not only to maritime commerce but also to its sovereignty Battle against piracy offered a good reason for a state to claim its authority as the sole protector of people and to establish peace order and sovereignty In fact as the contributors explain the story was not that simple because states sometimes attempted to make economic and political use of piracy while private interests were strongly involved in antipiracy politics State formation processes were not clearly separated from non state elements Contributors are Kudo Akihito Satsuma Shinsuke Suzuki Hideaki Lakshmi Sabramanian Ota Atsushi James Francis Warren Fujita Tatsuo Murakami Ei and Toyooka Yasufumi

The Arab World Halim Barakat, 1993-10-14 This wide ranging examination of Arab society and culture offers a unique opportunity to know the Arab world from an Arab point of view Halim Barakat an expatriate Syrian who is both scholar and novelist emphasizes the dynamic changes and diverse patterns that have characterized the Middle East since the mid nineteenth century The Arab world is not one shaped by Islam nor one simply explained by reference to the sectarian conflicts of a mosaic society Instead Barakat reveals a society that is highly complex with many and various contending polarities It is a society in a state of becoming and change one whose social contradictions are at the root of the struggle to transcend dehumanizing conditions Arguing from a perspective that is both radical and critical Barakat is committed to the improvement of human conditions in the Arab world
