New Imperialists How Five Restless Kids Grew Up To Virtually Rule Your World:

The New Imperialists Mark Leibovich, 2006-03-01 When the history of the Digital Age is written the story will be boiled down to the empires created by 5 men Bill Gates Steve Case Larry Ellison John Chambers Jeff Bezos Yet who really are they Leibovich spent 18 months interviewing the men themselves over 400 people who have known them best family friends neighbors former teachers classmates lovers colleagues employees adversaries Combining the info he gleaned with his own unique take on these men Leibovich has written a fascinating collection of biographies emphasizing their little known deeply personal quirks motivations warts demons vanities What are the common denominators that drove them to invent conquer rule their own economic realm

The Burdens of Aspiration Elsa Davidson, 2011-08-22 During the tech boom Silicon Valley became one of the most concentrated zones of wealth polarization and social inequality in the United States a place with a fast disappearing middle class persistent pockets of poverty and striking gaps in educational and occupational achievement along class and racial lines Low wage workers and their families experienced a profound sense of exclusion from the techno entrepreneurial culture while middle class residents witnessing up close the seemingly overnight success of a new entrepreneurial class negotiated both new and seemingly unattainable standards of personal success and the erosion of their own economic security The Burdens of Aspiration explores the imprint of the region's success driven public culture the realities of increasing social and economic insecurity and models of success emphasized in contemporary public schools for the region's working and middle class youth Focused on two disparate groups of students low income at risk Latino youth attending a specialized program exposing youth to high tech industry within an under performing public high school and middle income white and Asian students attending a high performing public school with informal connections to the tech elite Elsa Davidson offers an in depth look at the process of forming aspirations across lines of race and class By analyzing the successes and sometimes unanticipated effects of the schools attempts to shape the aspirations and values of their students she provides keen insights into the role schooling plays in social reproduction and how dynamics of race and class inform ideas about responsible citizenship that are instilled in America's youth

This Town Mark Leibovich, 2014-04-29 A 1 New York Times bestseller A gripping expose that delves into the heart of Washington D C and the intersection of big politics big money big media and big vanity Through the eyes of author Mark Leibovich we discover how the funeral for a beloved newsman becomes the social event of the year how political reporters are fetishized for their ability to get their names into the predawn e mail sent out by the city's most powerful and puzzled over journalist how a disgraced Hill aide can overcome ignominy and emerge with a more potent brand than many elected members of Congress And how an administration bent on changing Washington can be sucked into the ways of This Town with the same ease with which Tea Party insurgents can once elected settle into it like a warm bath Outrageous fascinating and very necessary This Town is a must read whether you're inside the highway which encircles DC or just trying to get there
