War and Survival in Sudan's Frontierlands Wendy James, 2007-10-04 This book completes a trilogy by the anthropologist Wendy James It is a case study of how the Uduk speaking people originally from the Blue Nile region between the north and the south of Sudan have been caught up in and displaced by a generation of civil war Some have responded by defending their nation others by joining the armed resistance of the Sudan People's Liberation Army and yet others eventually finding security as international refugees in Ethiopia and even further afield in countries such as the USA Sudan's peace agreement of 2005 leaves much uncertainty for the future of the whole country as conflict still rages in Darfur The Uduk case shows how people who once lived together now try to maintain links across borders and even continents through modern communications and where possible recreate their traditional forms of story telling music and song Inside Cultures William Balée, 2021-08-17

This concise contemporary option for instructors of cultural anthropology breaks away from the traditional structure of introductory textbooks Emphasizing the interaction between humans and their environment the tension between human universals and cultural variation and the impacts of colonialism on traditional cultures Inside Cultures shows students how cultural anthropology can help us understand the complex globalized world around us This third edition contains brand new material on many subjects including anthropological approaches to anti racism social movements in the Global North during 2020 includes findings in anthropological research regarding the Covid 19 pandemic and its relation to other recent global events and conditions updates the organization and presentation of cultural universals and cultural variations presents updated and enhanced discussions of anthropological studies of humankind and the environment with expanded analysis of industrial agriculture in the age of globalization includes more illustrations and updates to existing illustrations sidebars and guideposts throughout the volume is written in clear supple prose that delights readers while informing on content of one of the important courses in a liberal arts education one that effectively bridges humanities and the sciences War

Economies and Post-war Crime Sabine Kurtenbach, Angelika Rettberg, 2020-05-21 Even when armed conflicts formally end the transition to peace is not clear cut This comprehensive volume explores the mounting evidence which suggests that it is rather unlikely to see a clean break from violence to consent from theft to production from repression to democracy or from impunity to accountability The authors analyse the complex endeavour of transitioning out of war studying how it is often interrelated with other transformations such as changes in the political regime democratisation and in the economy opening of markets to globalisation They explore how in the same way as wars and conflicts reflect the societies they befall post war orders may replicate and perpetuate some of the drivers of war related violence such as high levels of instability institutional fragility corruption and inequality This book thus suggests that even in the absence of a formal relapse into war and the re mobilisation of former insurgents many transitional contexts are marked by the steady and ongoing reconfiguration of criminal and illegal groups and practices This book will be of great interest to students and researchers of political science and peace studies It was originally published as an online special issue of Third World Thematics Emma's War Deborah Scroggins, 2011-11-23 Emma McCune's passion for Africa her unstinting commitment to the children of Sudan and her youthful beauty and glamour set her apart from other relief workers from the moment she arrived in southern Sudan But no one was prepared for her decision to marry a local warlord a man who seemed to embody everything she was working against and to throw herself into his violent quest to take over southern Sudan s rebel movement With precision and insight Deborah Scroggins who met McCune in Sudan charts the process by which McCune s romantic delusions led to her descent into the hell of Africa s longest running civil war Emma s War is at once a disturbing love story and an up close look at Sudan a world where international aid fuels armies as well as the starving population and where the northern based Islamic government backed by Osama bin Laden is locked in a war with the Christian and pagan south over religion oil and slaves A timely revelatory account of the nature of relief work of the men and women who choose to carry it out and of one woman s sacrifice to its ideals

Politics and Violence in Eastern Africa David M. Anderson, Øystein H. Rolandsen, 2017-10-02 Over the fifty years between 1940 and 1990 the countries of eastern Africa were embroiled in a range of debilitating and destructive conflicts starting with the wars of independence but then incorporating rebellion secession and local insurrection as the Cold War replaced colonialism The articles gathered here illustrate how significant widespread and dramatic this violence was In these years violence was used as a principal instrument in the creation and consolidation of the authority of the state and it was also regularly and readily utilised by those who wished to challenge state authority through insurrection and secession Why was it that eastern Africa should have experienced such extensive and intensive violence in the fifty years before 1990 Was this resort to violence a consequence of imperial rule the legacy of oppressive colonial domination under a coercive and non representative state system Did essential contingencies such as the Cold War provoke and promote the use of violence Or was it a choice made by Africans themselves and their leaders a product of their own agency This book focuses on these turbulent decades exploring the principal conflicts in six key countries Kenya Uganda Sudan Ethiopia Somalia and Tanzania This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Eastern African Studies

Elites and the Politics of Accountability in Africa Wale Adebani, Rogers Orock, 2021-05-24 Elites and the Politics of Accountability in Africa examines the ways that accountability offers an effective interpretive lens to the social cultural and institutional struggles of both the elites and ordinary citizens in Africa Each chapter investigates questions of power its public deliberation and its negotiation in Africa by studying elites through the framework of accountability The book enters conversations about political subjectivity and agency especially from ongoing struggles around identities and belonging as well as representation and legitimacy Who speaks to whom And on whose behalf do they speak The contributors to this volume offer careful analyses of how such concerns are embedded in wider forms of cultural social and institutional discussions about transparency collective responsibility community and public decision making processes These concerns affect prospects for democratic oversight as well as questions of alienation exclusivity privilege and democratic deficit The book situates our understanding of the emergence meaning and conceptual relevance of elite accountability to study political practices in Africa It then juxtaposes this contextualization of accountability in relation to the practices of African elites Elites and the Politics of Accountability in Africa offers fresh dynamic and multifarious accounts of elites and their practices of accountability and locally plausible self legitimation as well as illuminating accounts of contemporary African elites in relation to their socially and historically situated outcomes of contingency composition negotiation and compromise Money and Violence Erik Bähre, 2007 This ethnography reveals how faced with violence economic insecurity and volatile relations Xhosa migrants in Cape Town South Africa establish burial societies and credit groups It examines the urban poor's day to day struggles over money in post apartheid South Africa The ANC's War against Apartheid Stephen R. Davis, 2018-02-02 This study of the armed wing of the African National Congress also contributes significantly to scholarship on liberation movements more broadly Gary Baines author of South Africa's Border War For nearly three decades the armed wing of the African National Congress ANC known as Umkhonto we Sizwe MK waged a violent revolutionary struggle against the apartheid state in South Africa Stephen Davis works with extensive oral testimonies and the heroic myths that were constructed after 1994 to offer a new history of this movement Davis deftly addresses the histories that reinforce the legitimacy of the ANC as a ruling party its longstanding entanglement with the South African Communist Party and efforts to consolidate a single narrative of struggle and renewal in concrete museums and memorials Davis shows that the history of MK is more complicated and ambiguous than previous laudatory accounts would have us believe and in doing so he discloses the contradictions of the liberation struggle as well as its political manifestations Muslim Families in Global Senegal Beth Buggenhagen, 2012-02-06 A first rate ethnography of Muslim women in Dakar an extremely fine grained analysis of women's exchange networks Robert Launay Northwestern University Senegalese Murid migrants have circulated cargo and currency through official and unofficial networks in Africa and the world Muslim Families in Global Senegal focuses on trade and the transmission of enduring social value through cloth videos of life cycle rituals and religious offerings Highlighting women's participation in these networks and the financial strategies they rely on Beth Buggenhagen reveals the deep connections between economic profits and ritual and social authority Buggenhagen discovers that these strategies are not responses to a dispersed community in crisis but rather produce new roles wealth and worth for Senegalese women in all parts of the globe

A lively insightful and important study of exchange practices between Senegal and a circuit of global trade The innovative focus is on the meanings not the social and economic functions of exchange Karen Tranberg Hansen Northwestern University While the author s focus is on the transformation in the role of women both within the family network and in the marketplace the book allows readers to better understand the impact of globalism on the citizens of Senegal Recommended Choice

Religion on the Move! Afe Adogame,Shobana Shankar,2012-11-21 In Religions on the Move Afe Adogame and Shobana Shankar present essays on religious expansion beyond Christian missions focusing on activities of migrants from Africa Asia and Latin America spreading their faiths in Europe North America and within the South In-Betweenness in Greater Khartoum Alice Franck,Barbara Casciarri,Idris El-Hassan,2021-04-01 Focusing on Greater Khartoum following South Sudanese independence in 2011 In Betweenness in Greater Khartoum explores the impact on society of major political events in areas that are neither urban nor rural public nor private This volume uses these in between spaces as a lens to analyze how these events in combination with other processes such as globalization and economic neo liberalization impact communities across the region Drawing on original fieldwork and empirical data the authors uncover the reshaping of new categories of people that reinforce old dichotomies and in doing so underscore a common Sudanese identity The Road to the Two Sudans Souad Ali,Richard Lobban,2014-03-17 Parallel with the previous volume of conference papers in 2008 Sudan s Wars and Peace Agreements most of these selected and thematic articles were originally presented as papers at the 31st meeting of the Sudan Studies Association SSA at Arizona State University in 2012 Since that time the Comprehensive Peace Agreement of 2005 provided for the self determination referendum of 2011 that resulted in the independence of the new Republic of South Sudan The previous book presaged this present volume as the perhaps inevitable outcome of endless conflicts with no serious effort to make unity attractive As this book goes to press the new Republic of South Sudan is itself wracked with violent conflict The hopes to build a new democratic and civil society in the south from the many inherited problems have now devolved to dysfunction itself Reading this book will realistically help in understanding these Roads taken The editors and authors have created a multi faceted account which reveals the complex foundations of these conflicts between north and south and recently within the south itself While Khartoum struggles onward with the Islamist project regional conflicts and grave economic problems Juba stumbles with corruption armed rebellion and a grave humanitarian crisis The half full glass of dreams of social and economic development supported by oil revenue has been replaced by a glass half empty with new varieties of political dysfunction in which both nations have grave problems in security and economic stability in a generally troubled regional neighborhood Changing Identifications and Alliances in North-east Africa Günther Schlee,Elizabeth E. Watson,2009-11-01 Forms of group identity play a prominent role in everyday lives and politics in north east Africa These volumes provide an interdisciplinary account of the nature and significance of ethnic religious and national identity in north east Africa Case studies from Sudan Ethiopia Uganda and Kenya illustrate the way that identities are formed and change over time and how local national and international politics are interwoven Specific attention is paid to the impact of modern weaponry new technologies religious conversion food and land shortages international borders civil war and displacement on group identities Drawing on the expertise of anthropologists historians and geographers these volumes provide a significant account of a society profoundly shaped by identity politics and contribute to a better understanding of the nature of conflict and war and forms of alliance and peacemaking thus providing a comprehensive portrait of this troubled region

Savannah to Suburbia Mary Edmunds, Nawal El-Gack, 2019-04-01 This book is the story of South Sudanese Australians told in their own voices At one level it is a single story a story of war of loss of violent displacement of the rupturing of ordinary life for these people It tells of years in refugee camps of the journeys that brought them to Australia and of the new life they are forging for themselves and their families here But this story has been experienced by individuals by ordinary people caught up in extraordinary events events that have become all too common in our present world Before Syria South Sudan had already become a byword for never ending relentless civil war famine and desperate children women and men So the story is multi faceted It is many stories and those are the personal stories that make up this book Some of those stories those of the Lost Boys have already been told in books film and song There is almost nothing yet from others especially from the women whose lives were also shattered by these wars Their stories are of the loss of children parents and husbands of the deaths and forced abandonment of newborns of multiple forced displacements But the stories are also stories of survival and resilience The twenty seven people who tell their stories in this book recount the different routes that finally brought them to Australia of their gratitude to be in a country with no war and of their determination to make a contribution and to forge a good life here for themselves and especially for their families and children demonstrating how wrong are political accusations of non integration and sensationalist reporting about African gangs in Melbourne

A Poisonous Thorn in Our Hearts James Copnall, 2014-06-01 What happened after Africa's biggest country split in two When South Sudan ran up its flag in July 2011 two new nations came into being In South Sudan a former rebel movement faces colossal challenges in building a new country At independence it was one of the least developed places on earth after decades of conflict and neglect The rump state Sudan has been debilitated by devastating civil wars including in Darfur and lost a significant part of its territory and most of its oil wealth after the divorce from the South In the years after separation the two Sudans dealt with crippling economic challenges struggled with new and old rebellions and fought each other along their disputed border Benefiting from unsurpassed access to the politicians rebels thinkers and events that are shaping the Sudans Copnall draws a compelling portrait of two misunderstood countries A Poisonous Thorn in Our Hearts argues that Sudan and South Sudan remain deeply interdependent despite their separation It also diagnoses the political failings that threaten the future of both countries The author puts the turmoil of the years after separation into a broader context reflecting the voices hopes and experiences of Sudanese and South Sudanese from all walks of life
