The 3 Ms of Fearless Digital Parenting Carrie Rogers-Whitehead,2021-08-03 How can we protect our kids online and teach them to protect themselves Do you feel overwhelmed with technology in your home Do headlines about this app or that website make you feel anxious and undecided as a parent Do you get advice from many experts but still feel unclear on what to do This book unpacks the 3 Ms of parenting in the digital age a proven approach used with thousands of parents through the work of Digital Respons Ability and its founder Carrie Rogers Whitehead When Carrie first started working in the field of digital citizenship she found significant gaps in how digital parenting was taught Not only were parents not informed enough around technology they also didn t understand child developmental stages Parents expectations for their children were unrealistic because they didn t know how online responsibility changes at different ages as children s brains change From this realization Carrie developed the 3 Ms three approaches to digital parenting based on specific age ranges Model ages 0 8 Manage ages 8 13 Monitor ages 13 18 By teaching parents how to change their approach to digital responsibility based on the developmental stage of their child she has seen significant success in fostering happier and healthier relationships between parents and kids as well as safer tech use by kids at all ages This book presents Carrie s approach in an accessible easy to implement manner giving all parents the opportunity to develop better tech use in their own homes and families and to parent confidently and without fear A Filtered Life Nicole Taylor,Mimi Nichter,2021-12-23 A Filtered Life is the first comprehensive ethnographic account to explore how college students create and manage multiple identities on social media Drawing on interviews and digital ethnographic data gleaned from popular social media platforms the authors document and make visible routinized practices that are typically hidden and operating behind the scenes They introduce the concept of digital multiples wherein students strategically present themselves differently across social media platforms This requires both the copious production of content and the calculated development of an instantly recognizable aesthetic or brand Taylor and Nichter examine key contradictions that emerged from student narratives including presenting a self that is both authentic and highly edited appearing upbeat even during emotionally difficult times and exuding body positivity even when frustrated with how you look Students struggled with this series of impossibilities yet they felt compelled to maintain a vibrant online presence With its close up portrayal of the social and embodied experiences of college students A Filtered Life is ideal for students and scholars interested in youth studies digital ethnography communication and new forms of media

Reimagining Communication: Action Michael Filimowicz, Veronika Tzankova, 2020-08-04 As a part of an extensive exploration Reimagining Communication Action investigates the practical implications of communication as a cultural industry media ecology and a complex social activity integral to all domains of life The Reimagining Communication series develops a new information architecture for the field of communications studies grounded in its interdisciplinary origins and looking ahead to emerging trends as researchers take into account new media technologies and their impacts on society and culture The diverse and comprehensive body of contributions in this unique interdisciplinary resource explore communication as a form of action within a mix of social cultural political and economic contexts They emphasize the continuously expanding horizons of the field by engaging with the latest trends in practical inquiry within communication studies Reflecting on the truly diverse implications of communicative processes and representations Reimagining Communication Action covers key practical developments of concern to the field It integrates diverse theoretical and practice based perspectives to emphasize the purpose and significance of communication to human experience at individual and social levels in a uniquely accessible and engaging way This is an essential introductory text for advanced undergraduate and graduate students along with scholars of communication broadcast media and interactive technologies with an interdisciplinary focus and an emphasis on the integration of new technologies

Use of mobile phones by the rural poor - gender perspectives from selected Asian countries Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2016-01-01 Mobile phones have been shown though not uniformly to positively contribute in various ways to rural development from reducing information asymmetry improving functional networks to increasing access to services and finance Yet a digital gender divide exists When contrasted with the fact that women comprise 43% of the world's agricultural labor force this digital gender divide can inhibit rural development There is substantial exploration of the digital gender divide in the literature Yet the answers to questions regarding differential access and use of information and communication technologies are mostly inconclusive This study tries to identify the information needs of the rural poor with gender disaggregated statistics
