Shopping as Comedy: A Victorian Scrapbook Alexis Easley,2024-05-09 This volume is a critical edition of a Victorian scrapbook composed of cuttings from advertising images from the 1880 s These images are arranged in hand drawn domestic spaces and embellished with watercolour details At the foot of each page is a handwritten running text written by an unknown Victorian author that provides a narrative to explain the accompanying images The album also includes four original short stories interspersed by twenty three vignettes which like advertisements in a magazine echo and reinforce themes in the surrounding content The album highlights issues of concern to women at the fin de si cle romance marriage shopping and house decoration The satirical commentary on late Victorian shopping and commodity culture provides a fascinating insight into the interests and responses of consumers during this period The volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of literary and advertising history How to Seduce an Angel in 10 Days Saranna DeWylde,2011-10-24 Got Angel Drusilla Tally Tallow does Both fallen and otherwise because she s got ten days of Heavenly and Infernal Parole after knocking Falcon Cherrywood from his broom All she wanted was to settle down with a nice warlock have babies and grow old together But she s got a bad habit of falling for the wrong warlock She blames Cupid Too bad her Heavenly Parole Officer is none other than the heart bandit himself the newly appointed Cupid and current fixture in all her fantasies Falcon Cherrywood After smiting Cupid with a fireball Falcon Cherrywood must now play the Diapered Archer He can t think of anything more humiliating than flying around in pink wings shooting arrows into hopeless fools Archery was never his strong suit and Falcon doesn t even believe in love But more troubling are the feelings his sinfully irresistible parolee sets off in him for only Tally has the power to make him believe in things better left to fairy tales like Happily Ever

Emmett, 2018-04-20 What can a pesticide pump a jar full of sand or an old calico print tell us about the Anthropocene the age of humans Just as paleontologists look to fossil remains to infer past conditions of life on earth so might past and present day objects offer clues to intertwined human and natural histories that shape our planetary futures In this era of aggressive hydrocarbon extraction extreme weather and severe economic disparity how might certain objects make visible the uneven interplay of economic material and social forces that shape relationships among human and nonhuman beings Future Remains is a thoughtful and creative meditation on these questions The fifteen objects gathered in this book resemble more the tarots of a fortuneteller than the archaeological finds of an expedition they speak of planetary futures Marco Armiero Robert S Emmett and Gregg Mitman have assembled a cabinet of curiosities for the Anthropocene bringing together a mix of lively essays creatively chosen objects and stunning photographs by acclaimed photographer Tim Flach The result is a book that interrogates the origins implications and potential dangers of the Anthropocene and makes us wonder anew about what exactly human history is made of If the Garfish Don't Bite Alice Lunsford, 2017-01-17 If the Garfish Don't Bite by Alice Lunsford Mary Alice struggles to navigate the world of adults around her Although she lives in a town plagued by the KKK she doesn't understand how there can be so much hatred in a person's heart Surrounded by racial injustice Mary Alice tries to make sense of it all and find her spot in a place run by adults who all seem to know more than she does While working on those mysteries she also struggles to shed light in a few dark corners of her own personal life However as she grows up life seems to get more complicated Secrets slowly began to reveal themselves and Mary Alice must confront the underlying bigotry and violence that exists in her own hometown Theatres of Memory Raphael

Samuel, 2012-09-11 When Theatres of Memory was first published in 1994 it transformed the debate about what is to be considered history and questioned the role of heritage that lies at the heart of every Western nation's obsession with the past. Today in the age of Downton Abbey and Mad Men we are once again conjuring historical fictions to make sense of our everyday lives. In this remarkable book Samuel looks at the many different ways we use the unofficial knowledge of the past. Considering such varied areas as the fashion for retrofitting the rise of family history the joys of collecting old photographs the allure of reenactment societies and televised adaptations of Dickens Samuel transforms our understanding of the uses of history. He shows us that history is a living practice something constantly being reassessed in the world around us.
