

TIME SPECIAL MILLENNIUM EDITION

The cover of the TIME ANNUAL 1999-2000 features a night-time photograph of the Washington Monument. The monument is brightly lit and stands centrally. Above it, a large, vibrant firework explosion in shades of red, orange, and yellow illuminates the dark sky. The city lights of Washington, D.C. are visible in the background, and the monument's reflection is seen in the water at its base. The title 'TIME ANNUAL' is printed in a large, serif font, with 'TIME' in red and 'ANNUAL' in white. Below it, '1999-2000' is in a large, bold, grey sans-serif font, and 'The Year in Review' is in a smaller, white serif font.

National Archives and Records Administration, SIMBIOS Project 1999 Annual Report Charles R. McClain, 1999 New York Vertical Horst Hamann, 2001 Some people may mistakenly overlook this book because of the novelty of its central idea upending a panoramic camera to shoot New York City vertically But veteran photographer Horst Hamann's pictures have nothing gimmicky about them in fact like Berenice Abbott's they seem destined for New York City photo immortality The pictures are beautifully controlled in vision in camera technique and in printing What's more Hamann bends the city to his vision of light air and geometry A shot of the Statue of Liberty's right arm holding the lamp aloft is a masterwork of composition and care It is as if Hamann somehow arranged for the sea below to darken in precisely the same gradations as the Lady's stately arm Compare it to a dizzying picture of one of the Chrysler Building's shiny eagle heads or a serene moment among the hosta lilies in Trinity Church cemetery for a grasp of Hamann's range Each photograph is paired with a quotation on the opposite page such as Walt Whitman's The beautiful city the city of hurried and sparkling waters or former mayor James J Walker's quip I'd rather be a lamppost in New York than Mayor of Chicago The back of the book contains information on the places in the photographs On a shelf of New York books this one might take its place next to Paul Goldberger's classic The City Observed as a fresh example of how New York's stone steel and glass architectural icons are reinvented with each new visionary Graphis Photo Annual, 2001 Annual Report United States.
