Long Loop Home A Memoir:

Long Loop Home Peter Wells, 2012-08-01 A prize winning memoir a tender evocation of a world a place and a time Born in 1950 to sporting parents and sharing his brother's homosexuality Peter Wells decided at the age of eleven that his family could not afford two homosexual sons The problems this led to complicated his youth but possibly gave him the creative fuel that would go on to illuminate his books and films Through the difficulties and strains explored in this mosaic of a memoir come many other voices and a transcendence over the inadequate ideas of time and place Winner of the Montana New Zealand Book Awards for biography I am lifted by his verbal sorcery into a world I had almost forgotten he writes with such piercing candour and self awareness that we cannot resist identifying with him it is a pivotal work Robert Dessaix Landfall

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers The Auckland University Press Anthology of New Zealand Literature Jane

Stafford, Mark Williams, 2013-11-01 From the earliest records of exploration and encounter to the globalized multicultural present this compilation features New Zealand's major writing from Polynesian mythology to the Yates Garden Guide from Allen Curnow to Alice Tawhai and from Wiremu Te Rangikaheke's letters to Katherine Mansfield's notebooks Including fiction nonfiction letters speeches novels stories comics and songs this imaginative selection provides new paths into New Zealand writing and culture Little Joker Sings Peter Wells, 2013-05-03 A moving short story about a strong bond both comradely and erotic formed between soldiers during World War II This is a story rarely told of a certain kind of relationship often forged during wartime Of love between men of unexpected passion Beautifully written by an award winning writer sensitively explored it is a story that does not have to end in tragedy and yet is poignant and profound Auckland Witi Ihimaera, 2003-11 In his introduction to this anthology Witi Ihimaera describes Auckland Tamaki makau rau as the place desired by many The variety in this absorbing collection of short stories poetry and extracts from novels and memoirs shows that while Auckland may not always have been desirable it has certainly fascinated generations of very different writers who have explored almost every part of this far flung city C K Stead and Maurice Gee for example go west Tina Shaw and Diane Brown visit the city centre Paula Morris and Peter Wells haunt the suburbs while Robert Sullivan and Albert Wendt head south Witi Ihimaera has skilfully constructed a literary map of the City of Sails whether you are a tourist or a resident an enjoyable journey is guaranteed The Our City series offers a new perspective on New Zealand's major cities Each volume presents a selection of the literature inspired by one of New Zealand's four major cities Chosen with care by a well known editor from each city the selections include short stories poems and extracts from novels and writers memoirs Each contributor whether contemporary or historical has a strong association with the city concerned and every selection has something significant to say about the character of the city Together they create a vivid picture of what makes the city unique

Long Loop Home Peter Wells, 2009 Together the pieces in this book make a kind of informal autobiography covering Peter's family stories and myths his childhood and adolescence through the 1950s and experiences from his adulthood The Adventures of Jonathan Dennis Emma Jean Kelly, 2015-11-20 A history of the New Zealand Film Archive and its founding director Jonathan Dennis 1953-2002 was the creative and talented founding director of the New Zealand Film Archive As a Pakeha non Maori indigenous New Zealander with a strong sense of social justice Dennis became a conduit for tension and debate over the preservation and presentation of indigenous and non indigenous film archival materials from the time the Archive opened in 1981 His work resulted in a film archive and curatorship practice which differed significantly from that of the North American and European archives he originally sought to emulate He supported a philosophical shift in archival practice by engaging indigenous peoples in developing creative and innovative exhibitions from the 1980s until his death recognizing that much of the expertise required to work with archival materials rested with the communities outside archival walls This book presents new interviews gathered by the author as well as an examination of existing interviews films and broadcasts about and with Jonathan Dennis to consider the narrative of a life and work in relation to film archiving
