Education Research Methods Fundamentals and Innovations provides a comprehensive solution by offering a detailed exploration of research methods tailored to the needs of students and novice researchers. This book covers qualitative and quantitative approaches, research processes, literature reviews, and other vital aspects of academic rigor in research. It also addresses common challenges faced during the research process, such as formulating research aims, questions, and hypotheses, and effectively collecting, analyzing, and interpreting data. Through clear and accessible explanations, readers gain a deeper understanding of these complex topics, enabling them to navigate the research process confidently. Additionally, the book covers various research types and designs, including experimental, survey, correlational, narrative, action research, and mixed methods designs. Ensuring readers are well equipped to choose the most appropriate methodology for their research needs leads to more robust and impactful studies in their respective fields.

International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-01-26 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education—dance, drama, music, literature, and poetry, and visual arts—this essential handbook synthesizes existing research, literature, reflects on the past, and contributes to shaping the future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education. While research can at times seem distant from practice, the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the live practice of art and of education, capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice. The Handbook is organized into 13 sections, each focusing on a major area or issue in arts education research.

Children in Immigrant Families Becoming Literate Catherine Compton-Lilly, Stephanie Shedrow, Dana Hagerman, Laura Hamman-Ortiz, Yao-Kai Chi, Jieun Kim, Sun Young Lee, Kristin Papoi, Erin Quast, Brooke Ward Taira, Bingjie Zheng, 2022-05-05 This original book offers a meaningful window into the lived experiences of children from immigrant families, providing a holistic, profound portrait of their literacy practices as situated within social, cultural, and political frames. Drawing on reports from five years of an ongoing longitudinal research project involving students from immigrant families across their elementary school years, each chapter explores a unique set of questions about the students' experiences and offers a rich data set of observations, interviews, and student-created artifacts. Authors apply different sociocultural, sociomaterial, and sociopolitical frameworks to better understand the dimensions of the children's experiences. The multitude of approaches applied demonstrates how viewing the same data through distinct lenses is a powerful way to uncover the differences and comparative uses of these theories. Through such varied lenses, it becomes apparent how the complexities of lived experiences inform and improve our understanding of teaching and learning, and how our understanding of multifaceted literacy practices affects students' social worlds and identities. Children in Immigrant Families Becoming Literate is a much-needed resource for scholars, professors, researchers, and graduate students in language and literacy education, English education, and teacher education.

Applied Theatre: Research Peter O'Connor, Michael Anderson, 2015-02-26 Applied Theatre Research is the first book to consolidate thinking about applied theatre as research through a thorough investigation of ATAR as a research methodology. It will be an indispensable resource for teachers and researchers in the area The first section of the book details the history of the relationship between applied theatre and research especially in the area of evaluation and impact assessment and offering an examination of the literature surrounding applied theatre and research The book then explores how applied theatre as research ATAR works as a democratic and pro social adjunct to community based research and explains its complex relationship to arts informed inquiry Indigenous research methods and other research epistemologies The book provides a rationale for this approach focusing on its capacity for reciprocity within communities The second part of the book provides a series of international case studies of effective practice which detail some of the key approaches in the method and based on work conducted in Australia New Zealand Singapore and the South Pacific The case studies provide a range of cultural contexts for the playing out of various forms of ATAR and a concluding chapter considers the tensions and the possibilities inherent in ATAR This is a groundbreaking book for all researchers who are working with communities who require a method that moves beyond current research practice
