Desmond Alexander, 2018-01-16 For here we have no lasting city but we seek the city that is to come Hebrews 13 14 At the very heart of God s plan for the world stands an extraordinary city Beginning with the garden of Eden in Genesis and ending with the New Jerusalem in Revelation the biblical story reveals how God has been working throughout history to establish a city filled with his glorious presence Tracing the development of the theme of city in both testaments T Desmond Alexander draws on his experience as a biblical scholar to show us God s purpose throughout Scripture to dwell with his redeemed people in a future extraordinary city on a transformed earth Part of the Short Studies in Biblical Theology series The Six Days of Creation William Graeme Rhind, 1855 The Mosaic Account of Creation William Dalrymple, 1794 The Real Story of Creation Willie J. Alexander, 2012-11-30 In his first book Entering The Promised Land Willies quest to understand how embedded social biases affect business success led to a much broader revelation Religious Scholar by training Willie's source for study was biblical Scripture In the course of his research he literally stumbled upon a new methodology for biblical study He named this new tool the Defined Word Approach Much to his surprise by using this tool he found a rich cultural heritage for individuals of African descent hence the title Entering The Promised Land In his latest writing The Real Story of Creation Willie lays out an entirely new perspective on Creation as recounted in the Holy Bible Using the Defined Word Approach he breaks down the meaning of the classical Hebrew words used to write the Scripture The take away is vastly different from the biblical teachings of the past two centuries Willie feels that using the Defined Word Approach to read and understand the Bible could be the impetus for re energizing religious study and understanding Willie continues to pursue his research and writing while providing leadership and guidance through his service and active participation in industry business and civic associations Church Dogmatics

Judaism's Story of Creation Jacob Neusner, 2021-09-06 During the formative age of Judaism the first seven centuries CE the great rabbis thought deeply about beginnings in light of endings They imposed upon their sequential reading of each passage the accumulated results of their reflection about all passages Thus they encompassed Scripture so as to describe the world as God had intended it to be This act of intellect resulted in two distinct ahistorical media of thought and expression the Halakhah law and Aggadah lore The author provides three systematic accounts of the Halakhic reading and two Aggadic accounts The Halakhic accounts cover 1 Work and Rest 2 Ownership and Possession Eden and the Land and 3 Ownership and Possession in the Household The Aggadic accounts pertain to 1 the Six Days of Creation and 2 Adam and Eve Karl

Barth's Church Dogmatics for Everyone, Volume 3--The Doctrine of Creation Marty Folsom, 2025-05-06 Karl Barth's Church Dogmatics is considered by many to be the most important theological work of the twentieth century. For many people, reading it or at least understanding its contents and arguments is a lifelong goal. Yet its enormous size at over 12,000 pages in English translations and enough print volumes to fill an entire shelf make reading it a daunting prospect for seasoned theologians and novices alike. Karl Barth's Church Dogmatics for Everyone, Volume 3: The Doctrine of Creation helps bridge the learning gap for would-be Karl Barth readers from beginners to professionals by offering an introduction to Barth's theology and thought like no other. User-friendly and creative, this guide helps readers get the gist, significance, and relevance of what Barth intended for the church to restore the focus of theology and revitalize the practices of the church. Each section contains insights for pastors, new theologians, professionals, and ordinary people, including summaries of the section, contextual considerations, and other visually informative features that reinforce the main points of Barth's thought. In addition, each volume features the voices of authors from different academic disciplines who contribute brief reflections on the value of Church Dogmatics for creative discovery in their disciplines. Volume 3 reflections include Samuel Adams (Biblical Studies), Gary Deddo (Systematic Theology), Cherith Fee Nordling (Embodied Theology), Will Willimon (Pastors), Jeff McSwain (Ordinary People), Daniel J. Price (Mental Health), Geordie Ziegler (Spiritual Formation), Ross Lockhart (Missions), David McNutt (The Arts), and Jonathan Lett (Science). Whether you are just discovering Barth or want a fresh look at his magnum opus, this series invites you to an enjoyable and insightful journey into the Church Dogmatics. The Thought of Creation Amite Neman, 2014-08-20 This book was written after many years of research and comparison between the Torah, Kabbalah, and science books. I started on this subject following a personal crisis. I had the opportunity of seeing people and phenomena beyond those experienced in the daily life. Go out of Egypt. I was told the meaning of it was to step out of the material routine and start dealing with spirituality. I tried to examine all new information and study on the topic of the creation of the world and the connection between the Torah and science. I searched for proofs to this connection in the most thorough way possible. Was the world created by accident or with an initial thought? What was the world created for? Is the Big Bang the beginning of creation or was the world created much earlier? What is the universe made of? What maintains it? What will happen to the universe in the future? When was man created? Was man created from the monkey? Is there any kind of connection between all of humanity? How can you even research creation? Can you possibly prove the existence of God? How can you even reach Him? Who can provide answers to that? The answers to these questions are hidden in the Torah. The Torah is a secret language. The Hebrew word for world, Olam, hints on the words Hidden, Ha-aleim, Ne-lam. Scientists study the world every day, and the results of their studies are surprisingly similar to the prophecies of the Torah. Jewish thinkers, world intellectuals, and tzadikim are able to find a connection with the hidden worlds. They told us that there is a Creator to the world, God. The world was created with initial thought. The thought of creation. Man has a special and unique role in the world to connect with the Creator by thinking of and helping his fellow men Love your neighbor as yourself The nation of Israel is a bridge that connects the material world with the Creator Will we successfully climb the right bridge Will man connect the world and humanity Will the nation of Israel successfully carry out its task Love your neighbor as yourself this is how the soul is built Let s connect to it Good luck
