delivers a quirky and charming novel chronicling the life of confirmed introvert Nina Hill as she does her best to fly under everyone's radar. Meet Nina Hill: A young woman supremely confident in her own shell. The only child of a single mother, Nina has her life just as she wants it: a job in a bookstore, a kick butt trivia team, a world class planner, and a cat named Phil. If she sometimes suspects there might be more to life than reading, she just shrugs and picks up a new book. When the father Nina never knew existed suddenly dies, leaving behind innumerable sisters, brothers, nieces, and nephews, Nina is horrified. They all live close by. They're all or mostly all excited to meet her. She'll have to speak to strangers. It's a disaster. And as if that wasn't enough, Tom, her trivia nemesis, has turned out to be cute, funny, and deeply interested in getting to know her. Doesn't he realize what a terrible idea that is? Nina considers her options: 1. Completely change her name and appearance. Too drastic, plus she likes her hair. 2. Flee to a deserted island. Hard pass, see coffee. 3. Hide in a corner of her apartment and rock back and forth. Already doing it. It's time for Nina to come out of her comfortable shell, but she isn't convinced real life could ever live up to fiction. It's going to take a brand new family, a persistent suitor, and the combined effects of ice cream and trivia to make her turn her own fresh page.
