Creating Christian Granada David Coleman, 2013-08-15 Creating Christian Granada provides a richly detailed examination of a critical and transitional episode in Spain s march to global empire The city of Granada Islam s final bastion on the Iberian peninsula surrendered to the control of Spain's Catholic Monarchs Isabella and Ferdinand on January 2 1492 Over the following century Spanish state and Church officials along with tens of thousands of Christian immigrant settlers transformed the formerly Muslim city into a Christian one With constant attention to situating the Granada case in the broader comparative contexts of the medieval reconquista tradition on the one hand and sixteenth century Spanish imperialism in the Americas on the other Coleman carefully charts the changes in the conquered city's social political religious and physical landscapes In the process he sheds light on the local factors contributing to the emergence of tensions between the conquerors and Granada's formerly Muslim native morisco community in the decades leading up to the crown mandated expulsion of most of the city's moriscos in 1569 1570 Despite the failure to assimilate the moriscos Granada's status as a frontier Christian community under construction fostered among much of the immigrant community innovative religious reform ideas and programs that shaped in direct ways a variety of church wide reform movements in the era of the ecumenical Council of Trent 1545 1563 Coleman concludes that the process by which reforms of largely Granadan origin contributed significantly to transformations in the Church as a whole forces a reconsideration of traditional top down conceptions of sixteenth century Catholic reform

W. Ahlgren,1998 Teresa of Avila one of history s most beloved mystics wrote during a time of intense ecclesiastical scrutiny of texts The determination of the Counter Reformation Church to dominate religious life and control the content of theological writing significantly influenced Teresa s career as reformer and writer Gillian T W Ahlgren explores the theological and ecclesiastical climate of sixteenth century Spain in this study of the challenges Teresa encountered as a female theologian and mystic As inquisitional censure increased and the authority of women s visions and ecstatic prayer experiences declined Teresa s written self expressions became of necessity less direct Her later writing was heavily encoded and scholars have only recently begun to decipher those protective codes Ahlgren demonstrates how Teresa s rhetorical style and theological message were directly responsive to the climate of suspicion created by the Inquisition and how they thus constituted a challenge to sixteenth century assumptions about women The only female theologian to be published in late sixteenth century Spain Teresa sought to provide a clear defense of mystical experience particularly that of women Ahlgren suggests that the rhetorical strategies Teresa developed to protect women's visionary experiences were subsequently used by Church officials to rewrite aspects of her life and thought transforming her into the model for official Counter Reformation sanctity
