Meyer En Van Schooten Architects Ing Group Headquarters:

Meyer en Van Schooten Architects: Ing Group Headquarters Hans Ibelings, Meyer en Van Schooten Architecten, 2003 The headquarters of the ING Group in Amsterdam is one of the most spectacular buildings of our time Even before construction began the design by Roberto Meyer and Jeroen van Schooten had etched itself into the public consciousness immediately attracting such nicknames as the shoe the handyvac and the TGV The ING head office is more than just an eye catching form This is only one aspect of the complex unity of form space construction technique and detail achieved by this architecture This book takes in depth cognisance of this extraordinary building from its mind boggling structure and perfect detailing to its wealth of ambiances and spatiality The architects themselves provide a well founded and precisely detailed description of how their architecture fits together and why this is so Plans sections and a great many details complete this building monograph together with stunning photographs from George Fessy

Meyer en Van Schooten Architects Hans Ibelings, 2001 The architecture of Meyer and van Schooten stands out for its inventive and innovative use of detailing for its formal elegance and its bold gestures Behind and within the seductive forms of their architecture there are myriad subtleties not only in the details but also in the spaciousness the use of materials and the angularity and stratification of the shell Meyer and van Schooten seamlessly integrate form function and technology into a dynamic architecture that appeals directly to the senses For the past two decades Meyer and van Schooten have designed projects ranging from housing to bridges from reconstructions of historic buildings to international corporate headquarters This monograph will be the first published on their output
