an eccentric literary outsider filled with ideas that were out of step with the world. An author and unreliable narrator of implausible stories, Barker founded and operated Saucerian Books, an independent publisher of books about flying saucers and other ideas at the fringes of popular discourse. In The Saucerian, Gabriel Mckee tells the fascinating story of Barker's West Virginia based press, the unique corpus of materials it published, and how office copying and self-publishing techniques influenced the spread of paranormal beliefs and conspiratorial worldviews over the last century. Following the development of UFO subculture, Mckee explores the life and career of a larger than life hoaxer and originator of pseudoscientific ideas. Ever an entertainer, Barker established his reputation with one of the first flying saucer fanzines, The Saucerian, and with his first book, the conspiratorial and sensationalistic They Knew Too Much about Flying Saucers. By the close of the 1950s, he had established a publishing imprint that brought out some of the strangest UFO related books of the era, with a particular emphasis on flying saucer contactees. Saucerian Books became a platform for those whose stories were too unusual, implausible, or crudely written for more mainstream publishers. Though Barker himself was a skeptic, he viewed the world of occult believers as a source of ongoing entertainment. He also may have used the perceived eccentricity of flying saucer research or ufology to obscure his homosexuality from his small town neighbors. From his place on the fringes of midcentury American culture, Barker left an unmatched legacy in conspiratorial concepts that have become prominent pop cultural folklore, including the Men in Black, the Mothman, and the Philadelphia Experiment. As a mastermind behind the fantastical, Barker's promotional efforts were the precursor to contemporary conspiracism.

Acorns: Windows High-Tide Foghat
Joshua Morris, 2013-01-23. Acorns delineates the future of humanity as a reunification of intellect with the Deep Self. Having chosen to focus upon ego established securely by the time of Christ, much more beta brain wave development will destroy our species and others, which process has already begun. We create our own realities through beliefs, intents, and desires, and we were in and out of probabilities constantly. Feelings follow beliefs, not the other way around. Psychoanalysis and the Paranormal

Nick Totton, 2018-11-09. This book demonstrates in different ways that paranormal phenomena are of direct relevance to psychoanalysis and that they frequently impinge directly on its clinical practice, most obviously in the forms of telepathy and synchronicity.

The Re-Enchantment of the West, Vol 2
Christopher Partridge, 2006-04-20. The Re-Enchantment of the West challenges those theories that predict widespread secularization beyond traditional institutional religiosity. Spiritualities are emerging that are not only quite different from the those forms of religion that are in decline, but are often defined over against them and articulated and passed on in ways quite different from those of traditional religion. In particular, it is argued that such contemporary Western spirituality is fed by a constantly replenished reservoir of ideas, practices, and methodologies, which is here termed occulture. Moreover, such occultural ideas both feed into and are resourced by popular culture. Indeed, popular occulture is a key feature of the re-enchantment of the West. Demonstrating the significance and ubiquity of these ideas, this book examines, for example, healthcare and nursing contemporary
