

Establish your strategic priorities

The data gathered during the evaluation stage of your strategic planning will enable you to specify the company's objectives for the next three to five years.

The strategic retreat should allow you to set concrete targets and agree on priorities by assessing the benefits and efforts required for the various activities being proposed.

Determine their priority based on:

Required effort

- Required investments
- Risk level

Expected benefits

- Additional revenue in relation to current sales
- Profitability (% of sales)
