Da Vinci—reproduced here—is an artificial picture of the same kind.

If then we will make a composition; sculpture and architecture dependent; painting an intentional distortion; what is inevitable?

It differs from sculpture and painting diametrically: language comes to us consciously like them. Speech, like music, is a string of sounds. Writing is a string of signs. It is easier to imagine sounds as a sequence, than the page of a book. Let us get this disentangled from what is accidental. It is our custom to write from left to right along lines. Writing and printed matter look natural because we are accustomed to them. Other alphabets strike us as instantly more difficult, until we grow accustomed to them. Then direct we all are we for even from the specimens of writing on the following page. If the page is held up to the light, and looked through, or to
