New Designs Of Small Properties:

Pioneers of American Landscape Design Charles A. Birnbaum, Lisa E. Crowder, 1993 The Design of Small Properties M. E. Bottomley, 1926 Small Houses Nicolas Pople, 2003 Small houses are no longer synonymous with cheap houses and lack of privilege. Instead, they symbolize a range of culturally coded values: compactness, efficiency, discrimination, discreteness, minimalism. Opening with a detailed exploration of the social and historical background behind compact housing in the twentieth century, this book goes on to feature 37 illustrated case studies that represent some of the best examples of small houses built worldwide within the past decade. Plan areas range from 7 to 150 square metres, 75 to 1615 square feet, and each project embodies a particular design approach towards compact accommodation. The case studies are organized into three chapters: Rural Retreats, Urban and Suburban Bases, and Small Clusters and Multiples, and include work by such architects as Toyo Ito, Lacaton Vassal, LOT EK, and Kazuyo Sejima. House & Garden's Second Book of Houses Richardson Little Wright, 1925 House Design, Construction and Equipment John Matthew Gries, James Ford, 1934

The New Modern House Will Jones, 2005-04-07 Every architect dreams of a perfect client and every client dreams of a perfect architect. Alas, these relationships don't always work out to everyone's expectations. But when they do, when there are shared ideas and the communication flows, the results can be spectacular. The New Modern House features forty new buildings where the synergy between the right designer and the right client resulted in works that surpass everyone's expectations. The book is divided into five thematic chapters: conditions, materials, environment, budget, and aesthetics, and each contains eight case studies. These include Rafael Viñoly's Piano House in New York, Sean Godsell's Peninsula House in Australia, and Ahadu Abaineh's Tree House in Ethiopia, among others. Beautifully produced, The New Modern House captures these noteworthy designs with a wealth of color photography, plans, and drawings, and makes an ideal book for anybody dreaming of the perfect house. Historic Residential Suburbs David L. An Uncommon Cape Eleanor Phillips Brackbill, 2012-09-07 When Eleanor Phillips Brackbill bought her suburban Westchester house in 2000 three mysteries came with it First from the former owner came the information that the 1930s house was a Sears house or something like that Thrilled to think it might be a Sears Roebuck Co mail order house Brackbill was determined to find evidence to prove it She found instead a house pedigree of a different sort Second and even more provocative was the discovery of several iron stakes protruding from the property s enormous granite outcropping bigger in square footage than the house itself When queried about them the former owner told her Someone a long time ago kept monkeys there chained to the stakes Monkeys Was this some kind of suburban legend A third mystery came to light at closing when a building inspector s letter contained a reference to the house having had at one time a different address Why would the house have had another address Her curiosity aroused and intent upon finding the facts Brackbill gradually peeled back layers of history allowing the house and the land to tell their stories and uncovering a past inextricably woven into four centuries of American history At the same time she found thirty two owners across 350 years who had just one thing in common ownership of a particular parcel of land An Uncommon Cape not only tells the story of an eight year odyssey of fact finding and speculation but also answers the broader question What came before and through material presented in twenty two sidebars offers readers insights and guidelines on how to find the stories behind their own homes
