New Directions in American Architecture Robert A. M. Stern, 1969 Partial Presentation of designs by some of the most influential and innovative architects New Directions in American Architecture Robert A. M. Stern, 1977 The author analyzes the ongoing debate between exclusivists such as Richard Meier Charles Gwathmey and Peter Eisenman and inclusivists whom he sees as representatives of the first generation of post modernist architects in America New Directions in Latin American Architecture Francisco Bullrich, 1969 Modern architecture in the Spanish and Portuguese speaking nations of Latin America New Directions in American Architecture Robert A.M. Stern (Architekt, Schriftsteller), 1969 A History of American Architecture Mark Gelernter, 2001 Why did the colonial Americans give over a significant part of their homes to a grand staircase Why did the Victorians drape their buildings ornate decoration And why did American buildings grow so tall in the last decades of the 19th century This book explores the history of American architecture from prehistoric times to the present explaining why characteristic architectural forms arose at particular times and in particular places American Architecture Leland M. Roth, 2018-05-04 More than fifteen years after the success of the first edition this sweeping introduction to the history of architecture in the United States is now a fully revised guide to the major developments that shaped the environment from the first Americans to the present from the everyday vernacular to the high style of aspiration Eleven chronologically organized chapters chart the social cultural and political forces that shaped the growth and development of American towns cities and suburbs while providing full description analysis and interpretation of buildings and their architects The second edition features an entirely new chapter detailing the green architecture movement and architectural trends in the 21st century Further updates include an expanded section on Native American architecture and contemporary design by Native American architects new discussions on architectural education and training more examples of women architects and designers and a thoroughly expanded glossary to help today s readers The art program is expanded including 640 black and white images and 62 new color images Accessible and engaging American Architecture continues to set the standard as a guide study and reference for those seeking to better understand the rich history of architecture in the United States Source Book of American Architecture George Everard Kidder Smith, 1996 This survey provides a unique overview of 1 000 years of architectural development Agency Florian Kossak, Doina Petrescu, Tatjana Schneider, Renata Tyszczyk, Stephen Walker, 2009-12-04 Presenting current thinking from practitioners and scholars from around the world this book asks for a more active relationship between the humanities the architectural profession and society Considering issues of agency in particular the role of architectural research as an agency of transformation the chapters here explore how humanities research can better contribute towards understanding current architectural needs possibilities and capacities for action American Studies Jack Salzman, 1986-08-29 This is an annotated bibliography of 20th century books through 1983 and is a reworking of American Studies An Annotated Bibliography of

Works on the Civilization of the United States published in 1982 Seeking to provide foreign nationals with a comprehensive and authoritative list of sources of information concerning America it focuses on books that have an important cultural framework and does not include those which are primarily theoretical or methodological It is organized in 11 sections anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science technology medicine and sociology Each section contains a preface introducing the reader to basic bibliographic resources in that discipline and paragraph length non evaluative annotations Includes author title and subject indexes ISBN 0 521 32555 2 set 150 00
