,2009 Salamone Rossi Don Harrán,1999 Salamone Rossi c 1570 c 1628 occupies a unique place in Renaissance music culture as in music history at large he was the earliest outstanding Jewish composer to work in the European art music tradition producing a repertory of over three hundred compositions published and variously republished in thirteen different collections Last but not least Rossi carved out his own niche in the history of sacred music by composing the first and only collection of polyphonic settings of Hebrew texts his Songs of Solomon before the mid nineteenth century As a Jewish composer working for the Gonzaga dukes in Mantua yet remaining faithful to his own religious community Rossi has a biography fraught with difficult and often exciting questions of a socio cultural order How Rossi solved or appears to have solved the problem of conflicting interests secular versus sacred Christian versus Hebrew Italian versus Jewish or within the Jewish sphere reactionary versus liberal tendencies halakha versus kabbala worldliness versus messianism is a subject worthy of inquiry not only because we want to know more about Rossi but also because Rossi can stand as a paradigm for other Jewish figures who moved between and accommodated to different cultures in his own and later times Yearbook of the Alamire Foundation ,2008
