Sustainable Peace in the Twenty-First Century Dilip Vasudeo Kulkarni, 2017-02-01 Why haven't we been successful in finding sustainable solutions is a question that this book attempts to address This book questions the appropriateness of current approaches to international conflict mediation peacebuilding and whether today's practitioners have the necessary patience passion and training to manage twenty first century conflicts This book also examines whether the current approaches to the mediation of international conflict and peacebuilding as well as the education in these fields effectively consider the influence of the post Cold War environment and whether they address sub national conflicts caused by the continually increasing social inequality within societies among parties with different cultural religious racial ethnic and linguistic backgrounds The narratives of the lived experiences of this book's contributors are used to illustrate the challenges associated with achieving sustained global peace in the twenty first century Using the author's conversations with the contributors to the book as well as educators this book suggests that a universally adopted answer to the book's underlying question has not yet been established Therefore the objective of this book is to start a public conversation about reforming the current education and practices used in the mediation of international conflicts and peacebuilding The author hopes that these reforms will enable practitioners in integrating the message of the youth uprisings across the globe in finding sustainable resolutions to social inequality based conflicts within their societies and among countries across the globe As all of the citizens of the world continue to live in the midst of conflicts erupting across the globe this book brings to the surface the urgent and acute need for finding better approaches to address this century's social inequality based conflicts This book seeks to bring hope and to energize individuals with different cultural religious ethnic racial and linguistic backgrounds as well as individuals with different professional and personal lived experiences to collaboratively work together to achieve sustainable global peace The author hopes that this book will foster among students educators and practitioners a better understanding of international conflict mediators approaches for accommodating the inter relationship between culture and the mediation of international conflicts

Will World Peace be Achievable in the 21st Century? Institute of International Peace Studies, Kukche P'yŏnghwa Yŏn'guso, 1999

Discourses of War and Peace Adam Hodges, 2013-06-18 Given the prevalence of war around the world it is vital to understand the way discourse contributes to the promotion and positioning of war as a natural or inevitable response to international problems In addition it is equally necessary to examine the way discourse impacts projects of peace which seek to displace discourses of war with alternative visions of the world This volume examines specific contexts around the world in which discourse operates in the service of war or to build alternative visions of peace Contributors who have backgrounds in linguistics anthropology rhetoric and communication studies draw upon discourse analytic and ethnographic methods to examine the discourse used by politicians and social actors in societies across the globe including the United States Canada the United Kingdom Morocco Ireland the Palestinian territories and Japan The book is divided into four sections that foreground the political effects of discourse on issues of war and peace including the way discourse is harnessed to justify war part I negotiate military deployment part II respond to armed conflict part III and promote peace part IV

Daisaku Ikeda's Philosophy of Peace Olivier Urbain, 2010-03-30 Who is Daisaku Ikeda At one level he is the leader of a religious movement Soka Gakkai which began in Japan where it still has its headquarters but which now claims 12 million adherents around the world At another level he is a globetrotting figure whose formal conversations with diverse writers thinkers and diplomats including Arnold Toynbee Joseph Rotblat and Mikhail Gorbachev have garnered him an international profile as well as academic recognition Perhaps above all else Daisaku Ikeda is viewed as a campaigner for peace And it is Ikeda's specific contribution to peacebuilding notably through the central emphasis he has placed on the significance of dialogue that this book explores the first to do so in a concerted way Olivier Urbain shows that while Soka Gakkai the value society may stem from the medieval principles of Nichiren Buddhism under Ikeda's leadership it has taken these classic wisdoms and transformed them Now essentially classless and secularised as well as adaptable and sensitive to modern challenges like resource shortages and climate change this argues the author is a pragmatic approach to peace which has proved both popular and eminently transportable

Úrsula Oswald Spring:
Pioneer on Gender, Peace, Development, Environment, Food and Water Úrsula Oswald Spring, 2018-09-04 This book aims to initiate among students and other readers critical and interdisciplinary reflections on key problems concerning development gender relations peace and environment with a special emphasis on North South relations This volume offers a selection of the author's research in different parts of the world during 50 years of contributing to an interdisciplinary scientific debate and addressing social answers to urgent global problems After the author's biography and bibliography the second part analyses the development processes of several countries in the South that resulted in a dynamic of underdevelopment The deep rooted gender discrimination is also reflected in the destructive exploitation of natural resources and the pollution of soils water and air Since the beginning of the Anthropocene in the mid 20th century the management of human society and global resources has been unsustainable and has created global environmental change and multiple conflicts over scarce and polluted resources Peace and development policies aiming at gender equity and sustainable environmental management where water and food are crucial for the survival of humankind focus on systemic alternatives embedded in a path of sustainability transition This book reviews multiple influences from Europe Africa and Latin America on a leading social scientist and activist on gender development and environment aiming at a world with equity sustainability peace and harmony between nature and humans This pioneer volume analyses social and environmental conflicts and peace processes in Latin America with a special focus on Mexico by addressing the development of under development global environmental change poverty nutrition and the North South gap This volume focuses on environmental deterioration with a special emphasis on food and water and proposes systemic changes towards a sustainability transition with peace regional development and gender equity This pioneering work offers alternative approaches to regional development food sovereignty and holistic development processes from a gender perspective Promoting Global Peace and Civic Engagement through Education Pandey, Kshama, 2016-05-04 It is easy to see that the world finds itself too often in tumultuous situations with catastrophic results An adequate education can instill holistic knowledge empathy and the skills necessary for promoting an international coalition of peaceful nations Promoting Global Peace and Civic Engagement through Education outlines the pedagogical practices necessary to inspire the next generation of peace bringers by addressing strategies to include topics from human rights and environmental sustainability to social justice and disarmament in a comprehensive method Providing perspectives on how to live in a multi cultural multi racial and multi religious society this book is a critical reference source for educators students of education government officials and administration who hope to make a positive change Just Peace Theory Book One Valerie Elverton Dixon, 2012-11-29 In these essays I often refer to social contracts such as the Declaration of Independence the Constitution of the United States the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other international conventions that describe a vision of just human relations especially in the area of culture and health care We do not live behind a veil of ignorance where we enter into contemplation of questions of right and wrong without an awareness of our own particularities Moreover we do not always determine what is right based on reason But we do make decisions every day about how we will live within the social contracts that govern our lives Many of us go along to get along with a lets not rock the boat preserve the status quo caution Then there are those of us who use the documents of our social contracts to secure more justice and more peace The purpose is to rock the boat and to disrupt the status quo when it is unjust I understand Christ as a title not as a person It is a designation of an anointing This in my opinion is the anointing of radical love Christ is the human incarnation of divine love We each ought to strive to become this whether or not we are Christian whether or not we are even believers Those of us who are Christians believe that Jesus paid it all There is no more need for blood shed sacrifice Murder is never holy God does not need it or want it Our work now is to become living sacrifices that will redeem this world through justice and peace That is the meaning of these essays From the Introduction Violence and Society: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2016-11-02 Violent behavior is an unavoidable aspect of human nature and as such it has become deeply integrated into modern society Examining violence through a critical and academic perspective can lead to a better understanding of its foundations and implications Violence and Society Breakthroughs in Research and Practice explores the social and cultural influences of violence on human life and activity Focusing on emerging research perspectives case studies and future outlooks this comprehensive collection is an essential reference source for graduate level students sociologists researchers professionals and practitioners interested in the effects of violence in contemporary culture 21 Latest Essays on Hot Burning Issues for Competitive Exams Disha Experts,2020-07-15 Peace on Earth Thomas Matyók, Maureen Flaherty, Hamdesa Tusó, Jessica Senehi, Sean Byrne, 2013-12-16 Peace on Earth The Role of Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies provides a critical analysis of faith and religious institutions in peacebuilding practice and pedagogy The work captures the synergistic relationships among faith traditions and how multiple approaches to conflict transformation and peacebuilding result in a creative process that has the potential to achieve a more detailed view of peace on earth containing breadth as well as depth Library and bookstore shelves are filled with critiques of the negative impacts of religion in conflict scenarios Peace on Earth The Role of Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies offers an alternate view that suggests religious organizations play a more complex role in conflict than a simply negative one Faith based organizations and their workers are often found on the frontlines of conflict throughout the world conducting conflict management and resolution activities as well as advancing peacebuilding initiatives Strategies for Peace 2nd Edition Maria Cristina Azcona, 2019-10-08 The authors invited to join me at this chapter of Strategies for Peace are Bruce Cook Ernesto Kahan Ada Aharoni Susana Roberts Sara Zamir Glenn Martin Nina Meyerhof Takis Ioannides George Sklavounos Bishnu Pathak Subhash Chandra Elias Galati Marita Ragozza and Domen Kocovar We need to create a discussion and a continuous dialogue by inviting brilliant intellectuals from all points of the globe to interchange opinions read one to the other and let mutual influence be the media of our union as human beings We are here talking like friends interchanging ideas about developing a possible future for our kids and we find one to the other so near so similar in our thoughts so clear in our ideas that we cannot stop continuing our dialogue in this sense and through this tool called Strategies for Peace To create books written by persons that come from diverse cultures is the tool to find a way out of this Babel Tower that leads humanity to an enormous hollow of Death and Disappearance Elise Boulding Mary Lee Morrison, 2015-09-15 Elise Boulding has been among the most influential of social reformers to advocate the integration of peace studies and women s studies Her ideas inspired a number of works addressing the role of the family in producing social change and discussing women s unique capacity for promoting peace through nurturing and networking Boulding s additional ideas on transnational networks and their relationship to global understanding are considered seminal contributions to modern peace studies and have earned her the title of matriarch of the 20th century peace movement This biography is divided into three parts The first and third deal chronologically with the life of Elise Boulding beginning with her childhood experiences as a Scandinavian immigrant The 1940 Nazi invasion of Norway significantly influenced her concepts of pacifism and Quaker spiritualism laying the foundation for her future work as a leader in the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and her dynamic professional partnership with and marriage to the internationally known Quaker economist and poet Kenneth Boulding. Part Two expounds upon Boulding's philosophy of education, her role as a member of the Religious Society of Friends, her espousal of the conceptual evolution of cultures of peace and her theoretical work in women's studies and peace research. In recognition of these achievements, Boulding has been the recipient of more than 19 awards and was a 1990 nominee for the Nobel Peace Prize. Peace Issues in the 21st Century Global Context John Duncan, Shreesh Juyal, 2017-08-21. Since the two Hague/Netherlands multilateral peace conferences of 1899 and 1907, the fundamental issue of world peace and its long-term realization has engaged scholars, diplomats, statesmen, and students of international relations. This book presents a new endeavor in this direction through a collection of papers selected from the recent conferences of the Canadian Peace Research Association and independent scholars. Descriptive, analytical, constructive, and balanced ideas and solutions in this text represent alternatives for the global community to be collectively secure and peaceful. This volume examines world peace in its foundational, descriptive, conceptual, and prescriptive aspects and as a social and human concept in positive and negative contexts, including the nonviolent perspective of peace women, theorists on peace and war, empowerment of women as peacemakers, and peace research and education under siege. On violence and war, the topics included are the theory of violence, the new faces of war, including military robots, electromagnetic and information weapons, cyber warfare, and the militarization of neuroscience. In the area of case studies, Iran and nuclear deterrence, the Baha'i faith and Iran, the Western Sahara, Sudan, and South Sudan, and the challenges of a Palestinian Nation are analysed. In addition, there is focus on the need to establish a Department of Peace in Canada and an attempt to seek establishment of world peace through direct democracy. This book will advance an understanding of the historic struggle and failures as well as the accomplishments and shortcomings for peaceful change and a just world order. It will be of direct interest to students of political science, diplomacy, history, social science, international law, human rights, and other cognate disciplines. The Centennial of the First International Peace Conference Frits Kalshoven, 2021-07-26. The celebration of the Centennial of the First International Peace Conference took longer than the original conference itself. For almost two years, experts from all over the world exchanged views on the progress, failures, lacunae, and prospects of international law. They focussed their attention on the three topics of the 1899 Hague Conference: disarmament, humanitarian law, and laws of war, and peaceful settlement of disputes. Starting with preliminary reports by world-renowned experts in their respective fields of competence: Hans Blix on disarmament, Christopher Greenwood on humanitarian law and laws of war, and Francisco Orrego Vicuña and Christopher Pinto on peaceful settlement of disputes, discussions took place at regional, legal advisers' meetings, universities, NGO conferences, expert seminars, and over the internet. These culminated in 1999 in two major expert conferences in The Hague, The Netherlands, and St. Petersburg, Russia.

The results were reported to the United Nations General Assembly at the closing of the Decade of International Law later that year. The present volume compiled by the Centennial organizers and edited by Frits Kalshoven, emeritus professor of international law at the University of Leiden and chairman of the International Fact Finding Commission established under Article 90 of the 1977 Protocol I for the protection of victims of international armed conflicts, includes both the major documents produced in the course of the Centennial celebrations printed and the various discussion papers as they appeared on the internet on complementary CD ROM. In addition to the Centennial discussion documents, historical papers on the 1899 conference diplomacy have been provided by Governments representing the 1899 delegations also on CD ROM. Together they provide invaluable information on the achievements of the last century as well as on the direction of international law at the threshold of the new millennium for both practitioners and students.

Annual Report on the Development of the Indian Ocean Region (2017) Wang Rong, Cuiping Zhu, 2018-11-11. The report was written by senior scholars of international studies and Indian Ocean studies and focuses on international relations in the Indian Ocean region and covers many aspects of OBOR policy and South Asia. The report includes both a strategic review and major events as well as related data in this region. This book also includes the origin, the aims, frameworks, the regional and global impact of India's new development under the Modi administration. The book includes the authors from 5 different institutes in China which provide readers with a full and authentic picture of India's most recent development. This year's Annual Report is the fourth of this kind and the only one which covers exclusively the Indian Ocean region in China.

Peace Leadership Ebben Van Zyl, 2018-10-01. In our progressively changing environment, it is of crucial importance to deepen our understanding of peace between people and how leadership can enhance that by leading for peace. This book proposes a useful framework for all leaders, including business, political leaders and peace developers, on how to attain peace between people. The book is presented in four sections:

1. Peace leadership in perspective: Discussions on the nature and meaning of peace leadership, important building blocks for peace leadership, emotional, social and communal intelligence, and a peace leadership in action model which forms the basis of the book.
2. Implementation strategies: Focus on lead self, lead with others, and lead communities. Lead self includes leading peace through self, others, and the community; the role of wisdom and spirituality in leading self and others; and individual, social, and cultural inertia preventing humanity from attaining peace. Lead others includes leadership theories which support peace leadership, the improvement of cultural intelligence amongst peace leaders, and women's role in peace building. Lead communities includes peace leadership in the public and private sectors, healthcare for the vulnerable, and its meaning and contribution towards peace leadership and working from helplessness to serving the community.
3. Tools and initiatives to become a highly effective peace leader, including information and communication technological innovations for peace leaders and sport as a tool for peace building.
4. Concluding thoughts: Concluding thoughts are given with the emphasis on what we have learned and looking ahead.

This editorial book provides a significant contribution within the emerging peace leadership
