Peace War And European Powers:

Peace, War, and the European Powers, 1814-1914 Christopher John Bartlett, 1996-01-01 The causes of war have tended to attract more attention than the causes of peace yet the two are intimately related Indeed there was much talk of war during the unprecedentedly long periods of peace between the European great powers in the years 1815 1854 and again in 1871 1914 the Near Eastern crises of 1878 and 1887 8 being only two of the more notable examples In the case of the latter there occurred a spell of fatalistic and belligerent talk in both Berlin and Vienna which in many ways anticipated that which gripped those capitals by 1914 This valuable book will be welcomed by anyone wishing to understand the nature of European state relations in the nineteenth century Professor Bartlett examines why major wars did happen and did not happen with particular attention being paid to the events of 1914
