RAWHIDE KNOT&OTH STORIES Conrad Richter, 2013-08-28 The powerful story telling voice that has carried so many readers back into the world of the American frontier is heard again in these eight tales of pioneers and pioneer days by the author of The Sea of Grass The Light in the Forest The Waters of Kronos and The Town Each story captures the force and sweep of our past in all its fierce reality bringing us the strong vigorous unforgettable men and women of a simpler harsher more heroic time. The title story gives the collection its unifying theme that of the frontier marriage the rawhide knot the couple bound together by the rough exigencies of pioneer life A young girl Sayward Hewett has walked with her family from Pennsylvania to a settlement in the Ohio wilderness and she is afraid of nothing One night the men of the settlement drunk bent on real devilment hardly less wild after a day s carousing than the panthers lurking just beyond the handful of log cabins decide to hatch up a marryin between an old maid and a shy outcast book learned young lawyer from back East But the girl Sayward facing the whole lot of them determined that she will marry their scapegoat bridegroom wins her own victory In Smoke Over the Prarie a marriage seems to presage indeed to precipitate the downfall of a great baron of the Old West In Early Americana and eighteen year old boy trapped in a Comanche uprising finds himself ambushed by love In all of these stories love and violence are voked together by the challenge of life on the frontier Here is the physical and emotional landscape of that world with its vast spaces its elemental struggles its quality both of legend and of history brought to us with the power and breadth that have given Conrad Richter's work its enduring place in American fiction CliffsNotes on Richter's The Light in the Forest Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2001-03-07 Conrad Richter one of American literature s preeminent authors on the American frontier highlights family hardship individual suffering and societal breakup in The Light in the Forest Impeccably researched Richter's novel takes place at a time of rapid change in the 18th century True Son Johnny is the protagonist a white boy captured at the age of 4 by the Lenni Lenape Indians and later adopted as one of their own Forced to return to his white family 11 years later True Son Johnny must address what it means to belong and face the consequence of defying those ties Where the Wild Books Are Jim Dwyer, 2010-04-01 As interest in environmental issues grows many writers of fiction have embraced themes that explore the connections between humans and the natural world Ecologically themed fiction ranges from profound philosophical meditations to action packed entertainments Where the Wild Books Are offers an overview of nearly 2 000 works of nature oriented fiction The author includes a discussion of the precursors and history of the genre and of its expansion since the 1970s He also considers its forms and themes as well as the subgenres into which it has evolved such as speculative fiction ecodefense animal stories mysteries ecofeminist novels cautionary tales and others A brief summary and critical commentary of each title is included Dwyer's scope is broad and covers fiction by Native American writers as well as ecofiction from writers around the world Far more than a mere listing of books Where the Wild Books Are is a lively introduction to a vast universe of engaging provocative writing It can be used to

is also durable despite being often unfairly maligned Ever since James Fenimore Cooper transformed frontier yarns into a distinct literary form the Western has followed two paths one populist what Time magazine famously billed the American Morality Play capable of taking many points of view from red to redneck but always populist with a sentimental attachment to the misfit the other literary eschewing heroism debunking with unsettling candour many of the myths of the West It can sometimes be difficult to draw a sure line between the two forms but both are represented in this outstanding collection which includes stories by Rick Bass Walter Van Tilburg Clark Larry McMurtry Mari Sandoz Christopher Tilghman and Mark Twain among many others The Senior High School Paperback Collection John Thomas Gillespie, 1986 Provides an annotated list of more than four thousand paperbacks including fiction poetry and books on religion art crafts sports science music history and education Subject Index to Children's Magazines ,1977 AIGA Book Show American Institute of Graphic Arts, 1978 Contemporary Literary Criticism Daniel G.
