The Hero in Contemporary American Fiction S. Halldorson, 2007-12-09 This book sets out to write nothing short of a new theory of the heroic for today's world. It delves into the why of the hero as a natural companion piece to the how of the hero as written by Northrop Frye and Joseph Campbell over half a century ago. The novels of Saul Bellow and Don DeLillo serve as an anchor to the theory as it challenges our notions of what is heroic about nymphomaniacs, Holocaust survivors, spurious academics, cult followers, terrorists, celebrities, photographers, and writers of novels who all attempt to claim the right to be hero. Barry Hannah Ruth D. Weston, 2005-07-15 A thematic tour of the complete works from this exceptional southern writer.

Gauthier, 2011-10-10 This book shows how a political and cultural dynamic of amnesia and truth telling shapes literary constructions of history. Gauthier focuses on the works of Don DeLillo, Toni Morrison, Michelle Cliff, Bharati Mukherjee, and Julie Otsuka. Raymond Carver's Short Fiction in the History of Black Humor Jingqiong Zhou, 2006 This first book length study on the black humor in Raymond Carver's work includes valuable interpretations of Carver's aesthetics as well as the psycho-social implications of his short fiction. The presence of an indeterminate menace in the oppressive situations of black humor in Carver as compared to a European tradition of existentialist writing and his American predecessors including Twain Heller Barth and others is mitigated through humor so it is not dominant As a result a subtle promise emerges in the characters lives The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library,1983 A

Companion to American Fiction, 1865 - 1914 Robert Paul Lamb,G. R. Thompson,2008-04-15 A Companion to American Fiction 1865 1914 is a groundbreaking collection of essays written by leading critics for a wide audience of scholars students and interested general readers An exceptionally broad ranging and accessible Companion to the study of American fiction of the post civil war period and the early twentieth century Brings together 29 essays by top scholars each of which presents a synthesis of the best research and offers an original perspective Divided into sections on historical traditions and genres contexts and themes and major authors Covers a mixture of canonical and the non canonical themes authors literatures and critical approaches Explores innovative topics such as ecological literature and ecocriticism children s literature and the influence of Darwin on fiction The Realist Short Story of the Powerful Glimpse Kerry McSweeney,2007 An aesthetic perspective on the short fiction of Chekhov Joyce Hemingway O Connor and Carver Taking a distinctively aesthetic approach to the genre of realist short fiction Kerry McSweeney clusters the work of five masters Anton Chekhov James Joyce Ernest Hemingway Flannery O Connor and Raymond Carver to offer a poetics of the form for students and scholars At the center of this argument is the notion that the realist short story is a glimpse powerful and tightly focused into a world that the writer must precisely craft and in which the reader must fully invest Selecting writers from different generational national and cultural backgrounds McSweeney chooses writers based on their commitment to the realist representation of experience and their shared belief in the importance and efficacy of the short story form By considering their efforts in tandem he develops a means to assess the strategies and claims of realist short fiction McSweeney demonstrates that when the comments these writers have made about their work are assembled and critically scrutinized the result is an aesthetic critical model as opposed to more interpretative models that focus attention on the determination or indetermination of meanings He suggests that a fully adequate reading of a realist short story involves the integration of three components the enjoyment and contemplation of the story in and of itself affective receptivity or a response to the story s emotional content and cognitive activity or the reflective consideration of the story s conceptual implications In individual chapters on Chekov Joyce Hemingway O Connor and Carver this presentational model is applied to widely known and often anthologized readings from each writer McSweeney brings into sharp focus the distinctive features of each piece makes qualitative discriminations and assesses the profitability of other critical models He concludes with an invitation to test the mettle of his approach in reading other realist short story writers The Films of Stephen King T. Magistrale,2008-02-04 The Films of Stephen King is the first collection of essays assembled on the cinematic adaptations of Stephen King The individual chapters written by cinema television and cultural studies scholars examine the most important films from the King canon from Carrie to The Shining to

The Shawshank Redemption Combat Death in Contemporary American Culture Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet, 2020-12-16
Combat Death in Contemporary American Culture Popular Cultural Conceptions of War since World War II explores how war has been portrayed in the United States since World War II with a particular focus on an emotionally charged but rarely scrutinized topic combat death Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet argues that most stories about war use three main building blocks melodrama adventure and horror Monnet examines how melodrama and adventure have helped make war seem acceptable to the American public by portraying combat death as a meaningful sacrifice and by making military killing look necessary and often even pleasurable Horror no longer serves its traditional purpose of making the bloody realities of war repulsive but has instead been repurposed in recent years to intensify the positivity of melodrama and adventure Thus this book offers a fascinating diagnosis of how war stories perform ideological and emotional work and why they have such a powerful grip on the American imagination Western and Hard-Boiled Detective Fiction in America Cynthia S. Hamilton, 1987-06-18

America Noir David Cochran, 2016-06-21 In America Noir David Cochran details how ten writers and filmmakers challenged the social pieties prevalent during the Cold War such as the superiority of the American democracy the benevolence of free enterprise and the sanctity of the suburban family Rod Serling's The Twilight Zone featured victims of vast faceless bureaucratic powers Jim Thompson's noir thrillers such as The Grifters portrayed the ravages of capitalism on those at the bottom of the social ladder Patricia Highsmith in The Talented Mr Ripley placed an amoral con man in an international setting implicitly questioning America's fitness as leader of the free world Charles Willeford's pulp novels such as Wild Wives and Woman Chaser depicted the family as a hotbed of violence and chaos These artists pioneered a detached ironic sensibility that radically juxtaposed cultural references and blurred the distinctions between high and low art Their refusal to surrender to the pressures for political conformity and their unflinching portrayal of the underside of American life paved the way for the emergence of a 1960s counterculture that forever changed the way America views itself
