La Raza Habla ,1982 'Now I Know': Five Centuries of Aqedah Exegesis Albert van der Heide,2017-02-28 This book describes how medieval Jewish Bible scholars sought to answer the question of what is meant by the Angel s message from God to Abraham Now I Know as written in Genesis 22 verse 12 It examines these scholars comments on the nineteen verses in Genesis that tell the story of Abraham s readiness to sacrifice his own son Isaac the Aqedat Yi aq It explores the answers they found to the question of what indeed this story is trying to tell us Is it a drastic way to condemn the practice of child sacrifice Does it call for replacing human sacrifices with animal sacrifices Is it a trial by which the Almighty tests the fidelity of one of His followers Or is it His way to show the world the nature of true belief The book starts with an introduction to familiarize readers with the many and varied manifestations of the Aqedah theme in Jewish culture and with the developments of medieval Jewish Bible exegesis in general Next it offers translations and analyses of the classical medieval Jewish Bible commentaries that deal with the exegesis of Genesis 22 exploring the many angles from which the Aqedah story has been understood No less than five centuries of medieval Aqedah exegesis are reviewed from Saadya 882 942 to Isaac Abrabanel 1437 1508 These texts from the commentaries are combined with hermeneutical key passages by Moses Maimonides Joseph Ibn Kaspi asdai Crescas and others which were familiar to the minds of the exegetes or which conversely reflect the impact of biblical Aqedah exegesis on religious thought Together the passages discussed illustrate the growth and development of Jewish Bible exegesis in dialogue with the rabbinic sources and with the various trends of thought and theology of their times The consistent focus on the Aqedah constitutes a unifying theme while the insights presented here greatly advance our understanding of the various developments in medieval Jewish Bible exegesis
