Re Visioning The Familiar:

Re:visioning the Familiar Ezra and Cecile Zilkha Gallery, 1994 Re-visioning Greg Surratt, 2020-02-04 Vision It can be a very slippery thing As leaders we can have a crystal clear sense of purpose and direction at some points but they may seem like foreign objects from time to time Sooner or later it happens to all of us In this book Pastor Greg Surratt shares his story of asking himself hard questions and finding the answers to be both surprising and inspiring He addresses the crucial topics of limitations culture and legacy but he also dives into harder issues of how to handle heartaches and what actually captures the hearts of the people we lead Re Visioning is designed to recharge our leadership batteries and equip us to inspire our teams with humility boldness and joy Revisioning Ritual Simon J. Bronner, 2011-09-30 A fascinating analysis of how the study of ritual is critical to illuminating what is Jewish about Jewishness Re-Visioning Psychiatry Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson, Constance A. Cummings, 2015-07-29 Revisioning Psychiatry brings together new perspectives on the causes and treatment of mental health problems The contributors emphasize the importance of understanding experience and explore how the brain the person and the social world interact to give rise to mental health problems as well as resilience and recovery Revisioning John Chrysostom Chris de Wet, Wendy Mayer, 2019-01-04 In Revisioning John Chrysostom Chris de Wet and Wendy Mayer harness and promote a new wave of scholarship on the life and works of this famous late antique c 350 407 CE preacher New theories from the cognitive and neurosciences cultural and sleep studies and history of the emotions among others meld with reconsideration of lapsed approaches his debt to Graeco Roman paideia philosophy and now medicine resulting in sometimes surprising and challenging conclusions Together the chapters produce a fresh vision of John Chrysostom that moves beyond the often negative views of the 20th century and open up substantially new vistas for exploration Re-visioning Family Therapy Monica McGoldrick, Kenneth V. Hardy, 2008-07-29 Now in a significantly revised and expanded second edition this groundbreaking work illuminates how racism sexism and other forms of oppression constrain the lives of diverse clients and family therapy itself Practitioners and students gain vital tools for re evaluating prevailing conceptions of family health and pathology tapping into clients cultural resources and developing more inclusive theories and therapeutic practices From leaders in the field the second edition features many new chapters case examples and specific recommendations for culturally competent assessment treatment and clinical training The section in which authors reflect on their own cultural and family legacies also has been significantly expanded Re-visioning Science Education from Feminist Perspectives , 2010-01-01 Women in science education are placed in a juxtaposition of gender roles and gendered career roles Using auto biography and auto ethnography this book examines the challenges and choices of academic women in science education and how those challenges have changed or remained consistent since women have become a presence in science education The book s contributors span a temporal and spatial continuum and focus on how a variety of issues relate to the paradoxes for academic women in science education Science is characterized as a masculine endeavor while teaching is described as women's true profession. Thus female academics involved in science education are positioned in two paradoxes. First as teachers they are involved in a feminized profession. However within that profession women faculty in science education work in a discipline viewed as a masculine enterprise. Further these women work in educational institutions that have higher status and prestige than their sisters in elementary middle or high schools. Second female professors are bearded mothers. Women who have engaged in science education value rationality and logic and assume authority as participants in academe. The use of logic, the acceptance of authority and the assumption of power are masculine gender stereotyped characteristics. This situation places women in a paradox because others including peers and students expect them to display stereotypic female gender dispositions such as mothering, nurturing, sacrificing their needs for others and a commitment to the institution. The topics include discussing how their engagement with science impacted their career trajectories and re-direction from science to science education, the relationships of cultural and racial factors on career trajectories and the dialectical relationship between women's private/public lives and their agency, collective and individual in the academy and its enactment within academic fields. The book documents the lives and careers of academic women in science education from the United States, Australia, the Caribbean, United Kingdom and Europe.

Handbook of Research on Revisioning and Reconstructing Higher Education After Global Crises Hai-Jew, Shalin, 2023-01-20
Global challenges in a chaotic context are ever in play, emerging and receding in time. At the present moment the global challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic have resulted in several years of mass scale challenges and lost learning and socialization from K-12 to higher education for many. The pandemic has been a high consequence and continuing event. Universities and colleges have been under unprecedented budgetary strain. Despite all the immense and irreparable human losses, humanity is moving forward with lessons from the past several years. The Handbook of Research on Revisioning and Reconstructing Higher Education After Global Crises explores how global higher education will recover from the global pandemic at the micro, meso and macro levels and how they will re-establish their relevance for teaching and learning, research and innovation and social contributions. Covering topics such as campus life, online library services and Indigenous students, this major reference work is an essential resource for educators and administrators of higher education, government officials, students of higher education, librarians, researchers and academicians.

Revisioning Writers' Talk Mary Ann Cain, 1995-03-09
Stressing the social dimensions of composing, this book inquires into the problems of interpreting and representing writers' talk in both academic and self-directed writing groups, arguing for the value of such talk as a distinct mode of knowing that both complements and criticizes more traditional forms of inquiry. Emphasizing the role of writers' talk in shaping the text that they produce, it discusses the problem of representing and interpreting writers' talk in the context of composition studies, using feminist theoretical perspectives to illuminate the difficulty in representing the writer as a knowing subject, neither essentialist nor totally constructivist. Revisioning Writers' Talk also investigates the idea of the social in social constructivist theories of composing arguing that they maintain rather than demystify hierarchies of discourse and in turn the subjects and objects of composing Cain's own story of composing is told in the context of her educational experiences as a writer Finally the book discusses the constructions of power and authority by both academic and self directed writing groups

Revisioning the Earth Paul Devereux, 1996-10-23 Devereux calls for an alteration of traditional perceptions of the world around us an ecopsychology that will reestablish harmony with the natural world His explorations of such ancient arts as feng shui herbal medicine vision questing and lucid dreaming heighten awareness of our place on the planet Photos line drawings

Re-visioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Pamela Sue Anderson, 2017-10-24 A passion for justice and truth motivates the bold challenge of Revisioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Unearthing the ways in which the myths of Christian patriarchy have historically inhibited and prohibited women from thinking and writing their own ideas this book lays fresh ground for re-visioning the epistemic practices of philosophers Pamela Sue Anderson seeks both to draw out the salient threads in the gendering of philosophy of religion as it has been practiced and to re-vision gender for philosophy today The arguments put forth by contemporary philosophers of religion concerning human and divine attributes are epistemically located yet the motivation to recognize this locatedness has to come from a concern for justice This book presents invaluable new perspectives on the philosopher's ever increasing awareness of his or her own locatedness on the gender often unwittingly given to God the ineffability in both analytic and Continental philosophy the still critical role of reason in the field the aims of a feminist philosophy of religion the roles of beauty and justice the vision of love and reason and a gendering which opens philosophy of religion up to diversity

Revisioning Italy Beverly Allen, Mary J. Russo, 1997 More than any other nation Italy from its imperial past to its subordinate present from its colonial forays to its splendid isolation embodies the myriad and contradictory historical forms of nationhood This volume covers a range of subjects drawn from Italy and abroad to study Italian national identity Whether considering opera or Ninja Turtles the essays reveal how cultural identity is constructed and manipulated an issue made urgent by the influx of African Indochinese and Eastern European immigrants into Italy today Topics include exile nationalism and imagined communities Italy's colonial unconscious and Mussolini's adventures in North Africa

Revisioning Transpersonal Theory Jorge N. Ferrer, 2002-01-01 A participatory alternative to the perennialism and experientialism dominant in transpersonal psychology

Re:Vision Aubrey Malphurs, Gordon E. Penfold, 2014-10-14 Pastors around the country continue to look for the program the book or the sermon series that will turn their plateaued or declining churches around But what if the answer to revitalizing the church was closer to home According to trusted church leadership expert Aubrey Malphurs and veteran pastor Gordon E Penfold it is They believe that pastors themselves are the key In a time when many pastors are jumping from church to church every two or three years as they search for the right fit where they can make a difference churches are suffering from a lack of sustained leadership from pastors with a viable vision for ministry In Re Vision Malphurs and Penfold take pastors through a process of discovery and self evaluation designed to help them re envision their role create a culture for positive change and recruit people to come alongside them as helpers and encouragers Multiple appendices offer self diagnostic tools and surveys to help pastors assess their strengths and weaknesses for more effective ministry Re Visioning Composition Textbooks Xin Liu Gale, Fredric G. Gale, 1999-04-23 An exploration of the sometimes tenuous relationship between textbooks and the discipline of composition and rhetoric Re Visioning Composition Textbooks critically scrutinizes the culture of textbooks from the vantage point of scholars and teachers It examines a variety of textbooks including standard rhetorics handbooks cross cultural anthologies readers technical textbooks and argumentation textbooks Different perspectives are used to discuss the cultures ideologies traditions and the material and political conditions that influence the writing and publishing of these works Contributors raise challenging questions about the relationship between textbooks and the cultures which produce them the discipline of which they are an indispensable part and the classrooms in which they are to have their most tangible effects on teaching and learning

Revisioning Beckett S. E. Gontarski, 2018-05-31 Revisioning Beckett reassesses Beckett's career and literary output particularly his engagement with what might be called decadent modernism Gontarski approaches Beckett from multiple viewpoints from his running afoul of the Irish Censorship of Publications Acts in the 1930s through the 1950s his preoccupations to find literature in the pornography or beneath the pornography his battles with the Lord Chamberlain in the mid 1950s over London stagings of his first two plays and his close professional and personal associations with publishers who celebrated the work of the demimonde Much of that term encompasses an opening to the fullness of human experience denied in previous centuries and much of that has been sexual or decadent As Gontarski shows the aesthetics that emerges from such early career encounters and associations continues to inform Beckett's work and develops into experimental modes that upend literary models and middle class values an aesthetics that furthermore has inspired any number of visual artists to re vision Beckett

Revisioning Duras Janet Sayers, James S. Williams, 2000-01-01 The extraordinary range complexity and power of Marguerite Duras novelist dramatist film maker essayist has been justly recognized Yet in the years following her death in 1996 there has been an increasing tendency to consecrate her work particularly by those critics who approach it primarily in biographical terms The British and American specialists featured in this interdisciplinary collection aim to resurrect the Duras corpus in all its forms by submitting it theoretically to three main areas of enquiry By establishing how far Duras s work questions and redefines the parameters of literary and cinematic form as well as the categories of race and ethnicity homosexuality and heterosexuality fantasy and violence the contributors to this volume revision Duras s work in the widest sense of the term
