Fairbairn, 2001 Reading and Reasoning DOWNING, 2013-11-11 I have written this book to put forward a new theory of reading the cognitive clarity theory But the book is not all theory I have tried to show how this theory can help students teachers and parents to improve children s education in reading at home and at school Although the cognitive clarity theory is new it is derived from other theories and from a wide range of educational linguistic and psychological research The cognitive clarity theory is thus a bringing together of the insights of many colleagues in these disciplines What the theory owes to these colleagues is clearly acknowledged as the evidence is presented But I must also be thankful for the experiences that have led me in this direction I worked as a school teacher for nearly ten years before I became an experimental psychologist During my years as a teacher I was often baffled by children s difficulties in learning to read Then only two or three years after qualifying in psychology I had the good fortune to be chosen to plan and conduct the first large scale experiment on children s reading in Britain Reasoning to Read Robert Femiano, 2014-10-15 Reading and Reasoning John A. Aaron Simmons,2019 One of the marks of being a philosopher is participating in debates about what counts as philosophy Of particular note in such debates is the question of how to distinguish philosophy from theology Although a variety of answers to this question have been offered in the history of philosophy in recent decades the prominence of Christian philosophy has been heralded by many as a genuine triumph over the problematic narrowness of strong foundationalism positivism and scientism For others however it signals that philosophy continues to risk being replaced by confessional theology Wherever one comes down on such issues and however one interprets recent trends in philosophy of religion the idea of Christian philosophy continues to present pressing questions for those working in meta philosophy epistemology metaphysics hermeneutics and value theory In this volume established scholars representing a variety of cultural traditions religious perspectives and philosophical priorities all wrestle with how the idea of Christian philosophy should be understood appropriated and engaged in light of where philosophy is and where it is likely to go The volume includes classical essays that have deeply marked the field and also new essays that explore the relevance of Christian philosophy to issues in disability studies engaged pedagogy lived phenomenology the academic study of religion and the workings of social power Rather than offer a unified view that seeks to settle things the contributors demonstrate that Christian philosophy remains a topic of lively debate Wherever one comes down on the issues considered here this volume shows that Christian philosophy is neither merely of historical interest nor of interest only to Christians but instead remains a thoroughly philosophical topic worthy of serious consideration and substantive critique With a Foreword by Nicholas Wolterstorff Noah Porter Professor Emeritus of Philosophical Theology at Yale University Senior Research Fellow in the Institute for Advanced Studies in Culture at the University of Virginia and Honorary Professor of Australian Catholic University Who Are We? Old, New, and Timeless Answers from Core Texts Robert D. Anderson, Molly Brigid Flynn, Scott J. Lee, 2011-05-04 In this volume the Association for Core Texts and Courses has gathered essays of literary and philosophical accounts that explain who we are simply as persons Further essays are included that highlight the person as entwined with other persons and examine who we are in light of communal ties The essays reflect both the Western experience of democracy and how community informs who we are more generally Our historical position in a modern or post modern urbanized or disenchanted world is explored by yet other papers And finally ACTC educators model the intellectual life for students and colleagues by showing how to read texts carefully and with sophistication as an example of who we can be
