Robinson, 2017-05-15 Arguing for renewed attention to covert same sex oriented writing and to authorial intention more generally this study explores the representation of female and male homosexuality in late sixteenth through mid eighteenth century British and French literature The author also uncovers and analyzes long term continuities in the representation of same sex love sex and desire between the classical early modern eighteenth century and even modern periods Among the seventeenth and eighteenth century authors and texts examined here are Mme de Murat Les Memoires De Madame La Comtesse De M 1697 John Cleland Memoirs of a Woman of Pleasure 1748 49 Tobias Smollett The Adventures of Roderick Random 1748 Nicolas Chorier and Jean Nicolas L Academie des dames 1680 Delarivier Manley The New Atalantis 1709 and Isaac de Benserade Iphis et Iante 1637 Classical texts brought into the discussion include Juvenal's Satires Lucian's Erotes and most importantly Ovid's Metamorphoses Casting its net broadly yet exploring deeply poems plays novels and more from the serious to the satiric the polite to the pornographic well known and little known written in English French and Latin published in early modern and eighteenth century Britain and France plus key classical texts this study engages with the historiography of sexuality as a whole

Cultural Representations of Queer Aging in Spain Heather Jerónimo, Raquel Medina, 2025-06-02 This collection examines representations of Spanish queer aging through investigations of literary and cinematic representations of this demographic offering a showcase for research on communities often made invisible due to age and sexual identity in Spanish culture with wider implications for queer aging studies research The volume builds on theoretical foundations established by queer aging studies scholars and the ways in which queer aging differs from heterosexual aging examining negative topics that arise in literature and film such as the AIDS crisis the silencing of queer aging individuals and social stigmas against this group in addition to positive topics like the creation of communities and spaces for queer aging characters Chapters are structured in conversation with one another about key themes in depictions of queer aging in Spanish culture Several chapters examine such topics as the aging body stereotypes and discrimination old age tropes and queer invisibility while others highlight positive representations in exploring the importance of the connection to home family and community spaces for queer communities The collection represents a critical step in future work on queer aging to take future research beyond the Spanish context to extend to new geographic and disciplinary borders This book will be of interest to scholars in aging studies gerontology studies queer theory health humanities and Spanish literature and culture

Translating the Queer Héctor Domínguez Ruvalcaba, 2016-11-15 What does it mean to queer a concept If queerness is a notion that implies a destabilization of the normativity of the body then all cultural systems contain zones of discomfort relevant to queer studies What then might we make of such zones when the use of the term queer itself has transcended the fields of sex and gender becoming a metaphor for addressing such cultural phenomena as hybridization resignification and subversion Further still what should we make of it when so many people are reluctant to use the term queer because they view it as theoretical colonialism or a concept that loses its specificity when applied to a culture that signifies and uses the body differently

Translating the Queer focuses on the dissemination of queer knowledge concepts and representations throughout Latin America a migration that has been accompanied by concomitant processes of translation adaptation and epistemological resistance
