Reading De Man Reading Theory And History Of Literature Volume 59:

Aesthetic Ideology Paul De Man, Andrzej Warminski, The core of Aesthetic Ideology is a rigorous inquiry into the relation of rhetoric epistemology and aesthetics and one that offers radical notions of materiality These texts were written or delivered as lectures during the last years of de Man's life Jacques Derrida Dr Marian Hobson, Marian Hobson, 2012-09-10 In Jacques Derrida Opening Lines Marian Hobson gives us a thorough and elegant analysis of this controversial and seminal contemporary thinker Looking closely at the language and the construction of some of Derrida's philosophy Hobson suggests the way he writes indeed the fact he writes in another language affects how he can be understood by English speakers This superb study on the question of language will make illuminating reading for anyone studying or engaged with Derrida's philosophy Critical Writings Paul De Man, Twenty five essays and reviews not previously collected most of which were written before 1970 and eight of which are appearing in English for the first time Valuable for the insights they afford into his development as a critic the essays are also significant in addressing de Man's consistent views of romanticism modernism and the dilemmas central to literature in recent centuries Thinking Through the Body of the Law Pheng Cheah, David Fraser, Judith Grbich, 1996-07 Issues that are drawn from and bear on disciplines including philosophy law and legal studies feminist studies social and political theory communication studies critical theory and cultural studies Romanticism, Hermeneutics and the Crisis of the Human Sciences Scott Masson, 2017-11-28 The human sciences established and developed in the nineteenth century have slowly disintegrated It is an ironic end It was in the name of the greater legitimacy of more universal psychological criteria that its architects disavowed the traditional theological standard for valuing and evaluating human words and deeds With hindsight we can see that universality was indeed gained but only at the cost of alienating any sense of common legitimacy Harold Bloom defending the canon largely in the humanising moral sense convention of critics operating since Matthew Arnold has resolutely maintained the common legitimacy of aesthetic value against the claims of particular interest groups But the very universality attached to aesthetic value is at odds with the world of common sense and thus lies at the root of the problem To complicate matters this universality has been understood as a traditional criterion A more radical treatment of the subject is needed This study begins by surveying the field of modern hermeneutics Noting its repeated crises of self legitimisation it traces these to circular beliefs bequeathed by Romanticism that human nature is self begetting and can thus be known intimately and autonomously After providing a historical overview of how human nature had been understood the focus shifts to the attack in Coleridge's Biographia Literaria on Wordsworth's 1802 Preface to Lyrical Ballads and to a reading of some key Romantic texts It reads Coleridge's famous definition of the imagination as an attack on Romantic hermeneutics rooted in the traditional view that man has been created in Imago Dei Belated Modernity and Aesthetic Culture Gregory Jusdanis, 1991 How does literature function in the formation of a nation state What are its pivotal contributions to national discourse and the production of ideological collective will And ultimately how is literature institutionalized and aestheticized Belated Modernity and Aesthetic Culture Inventing National Literature addresses these questions and considers the role literature plays in the construction of a national cultural Gregory Jusdanis examines the emergence of art and literature in Western Europe in the eighteenth century and traces their introduction to Greece a stratified noncapitalist society that was hostile to Enlightenment and secularism This groundbreaking work explores the importation of national literatures into a largely non Western society and the inherent resistance they faced Arguing for the literary status of national culture at its inception Jusdanis brilliantly demonstrates that in literature the specific meanings in narratives and fiction form the process of nation building Culture history and literature he says merge in those narratives which in turn provide the imaginary mirror in which a nation reflects itself Text and Culture Daniel Cottom, 1989 Text and Culture was first published in 1989 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions In Text Culture Daniel Cottom examines the political aspects of contemporary disciplines of interpretation He pleads against limiting the act of reading by disqualifying some readings as wrong or unscholarly and he argues for the necessity of multiple readings claiming that a closed off text glosses over differences that are political in nature He proceeds then from the notion of text to culture Just as the reading of the text is conditioned by irreducible political differences so is the reading of culture Finally to illustrate and further develop his arguments Cottom presents an extensive analysis of Great Expectations Cottom's materials range from academic jokes to King Lear and the writers he discusses range from Kant to Derrida from Freud to Basil Bernstein from Ludwig Wittgenstein and Bronislaw Malinowski to Erving Goffman Clifford Geertz and Stanley Fish This study is especially concerned with the way culture and related terms such as context and norm are part of a larger discourse in the contemporary humanities and social sciences a discourse in which their effect is to repress recognition of important historical differences conflicts and possibilities At the same time that he shows how difficult it is to get beyond culture he tries to indicate how interpretation may be turned into a more socially responsible practice Daniel Cottom is associate professor of English at the University of Florida He is the author of Social Figures George Eliot Social History and Literary Representation Minnesota 1987 and The Civilized Imagination A Study of Ann Radcliffe Jane Austen and Sir Walter Scott Reading With Clarice Lispector Helene Cixous, 1990-07-31 The Inoperative Community Jean-Luc Nancy, 1991 A collection of five essays of French philosopher Nancy originally published in 1985 86 The Inoperative Community Myth Interpreted Literary Communism Shattered Love and Of Divine Places A paper edition 1924 7 is available for 14 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Narrative as Communication Didier Coste, 1989
