MacKenzie,Patrice Dutil,2011-07-07 One hundred years ago Canadians went to the polls to decide the fate of their country in an election that raised issues vital to Canada s national independence and its place in the world Canadians faced a clear choice between free trade with the United States and fidelity to the British Empire and the decisions they made in September 1911 helped shape Canada s political and economic history for the rest of the century Canada 1911 revisits and re examines this momentous turn in Canadian history when Canadians truly found themselves at a parting of the ways It was Canada s first great modern election and one of the first expressions of the birth of modern Canada The poet Rudyard Kipling famously wrote at the time that this election was nothing less than a fight for Canada s soul This book will explain why      The Canadian Patent Office record and register of copyrights and trade marks Kanada Patent Office,1895      Scientific Canadian Mechanics' Magazine and Patent Office Record Canada. 21 Days in Normandy Angelo Caravaggio,2016-08-30 Right s some of the injustices done to the Canadians on their maligned actions during the Invasion of Normandy An absorbing account Firetrench The Canadian Fourth Armoured Division crossed the Channel in July 1944 to support the invading forces and assist in the Allied attempts to break out of the Normandy beachhead They were heavily engaged in Operation Totalize and Operation Tractable but have been criticized for their failure to close the Falaise gap and complete the entrapment of withdrawing

German forces Their commander Major General George Kitching was relieved of his command after just twenty one days in action Angelo Caravaggio reexamines the division s performance and particularly that of its leadership Using new information he establishes that despite entering battle for the first time during one of the most challenging phases of Allied operations in August 1944 the 4th Armoured Division under Kitching s leadership proved resilient and adaptive in overcoming the volatile and unpredictable nature of warfare in Normandy The combat operations of August 1944 transformed the division into a battle hardened combat formation that would later distinguish itself through its ability to generate a sustained drive across France out of the chaos and destruction of the Normandy battles The author uses new information to demonstrate the unit did show flexibility and adapted to the battlefield quickly despite being thrown into battle during one of the Normandy Campaign s critical phases His arguments are detailed and based upon in depth research and the book has many detailed maps to help the reader follow the action Warfare History Network Polarity, Patriotism, and Dissent in Great War Canada, 1914-1919 Brock Millman,2016-04-06 Compared to the idea that Canada was a nation forged in victory on Vimy Ridge the reality of dissent and repression at home strikes a sour note Through censorship conscription and internment the government of Canada worked more ruthlessly than either Great Britain or the United States to suppress opposition to the war effort during the First World War Polarity Patriotism and Dissent in Great War Canada 1914 1919 examines the basis for those repressive policies Brock Millman an expert on wartime dissent in both the United Kingdom and Canada argues that Canadian policy was driven first and foremost by a fear that opposition to the war amongst French Canadians and immigrant communities would provoke social tensions and possibly even a vigilante backlash from the war s most fervent supporters in British Canada Highlighting the class and ethnic divisions which characterized public support for the war Polarity Patriotism and Dissent in Great War Canada 1914 1919 offers a broad and much needed reexamination of Canadian government policy on the home front The Canadian Patent Office Record and Register of Copyrights and Trade Marks ,1918 Canadian Ford Owner & Dealer ,1922 Agricultural and Industrial Progress in Canada, a Monthly Review ... ,1926 Canadian Chemistry and Metallurgy ,1921 The Canadian Patent Office Record Canada. Patent Office,1918 Canadian Magazine of Science and the Industrial Arts, Patent Office Record ,1890 The Canadian Magazine of Science and the Industrial Arts, Patent Office Record ,1883 Illustrated Canadian Forest and Outdoors ,1926 The Canadian Department of Justice and the Completion of Confederation 1867-78 Jonathan Swainger,2000 The federal Department of Justice was established by John A Macdonald as part of the Conservative party s program for reform of the parliamentary system following Confederation Among other things it was charged with establishing national institutions such as the Supreme Court and the North West Mounted Police and with centralizing the penitentiary system In the process the department took on a position of primary importance in post Confederation politics This was particularly so up to 1878 when Confederation was completed Jonathan Swainger considers the growth and development of the ostensibly apolitical Department of Justice in the eleven years after the union of 1867 Drawing on legal records and other archival documents he details the complex interactions between law and politics exploring how expectations both inside and outside the legal system created an environment in which the department acted as an advisor to the government He concludes by considering the post 1878 legacy of the department s approach to governance wherein any problem legal or otherwise was made amenable to politicized solutions Unfortunately for the department and the federal government this left them ill prepared for the constitutional battles to come One crucial task was to establish responsibilities within the federal government rather than just duplicate offices which had existed prior to union Others were the establishment of national or quasi national institutions such as the Supreme Court 1875 and the North West Mounted Police 1873 the redrafting of the Governor General s instructions which was done between 1875 and 1877 and centralization of the penitentiary system completed by 1875 The Department benefited from a deeply rooted expectation that law was both apolitical and necessary This ideology functioned in a variety of ways it gave the Department considerable latitude for setting policy and solving problems but rationalized the appearance of politicized legal decisions It also legitimized Department officials claim that it was especially suited to review all legislation advise on the royal prerogative of mercy administer national penitentiaries and appoint judges to the bench Ultimately the fictional notion of law as apolitical and necessary placed the Department of Justice squarely in the midst of the completion of Confederation The Canadian Department of Justice and the Completion of Confederation will be of particular interest to students and scholars of Canadian legal and political history
