Reel Families A Social History Of Amateur Film:

Reel Families Patricia R. Zimmermann, 1995-07-22 Examines amateur film filmmaking and equipment from the late 1890s to the present focusing on the emerging and changing discourse of aesthetics creativity and innovation and standards of production Reel Families Patricia Rodden Zimmermann, 1994 Proefschrift Fotomech herdr van 1e uitg University of Wisconsin Madison cop 1985 Met bibliogr p 27 ontbreekt Ook aanwezig Bewerkte handelsuitgave o d t Mining the Home Movie Karen L. Ishizuka, Patricia R. Zimmermann, 2008 Features essays that combine research critical analyses and theoretical approaches regarding the meaning and value of amateur and archival films This book identifies home movies as methods of visually preserving history It defines a genre of film studies and establishes the home movie as a tool for extracting historical and social insights The Routledge Companion to Film History William Guynn, 2010-09-13 The Routledge Companion to Film History is an indispensable guide for anyone studying film history for the first time Incorporating a series of 11 introductory critical essays on key subject areas with a dictionary of key names and terms it serves to introduce the reader to the field of film history in a comprehensive and well rounded manner Amateur Movie Making Martha J. McNamara, Karan Sheldon, 2017-06-20 A compelling regional and historical study that transforms our understanding of film history Amateur Movie Making demonstrates how amateur films and home movies stand as testaments to the creative lives of ordinary people enriching our experience of art and the everyday Here we encounter the lyrical and visually expressive qualities of films produced in New England between 1915 and 1960 and held in the collections of Northeast Historic Film a moving image repository and study center that was established to collect preserve and interpret the audiovisual record of northern New England Contributors from diverse backgrounds examine the visual aesthetics of these films while placing them in their social political and historical contexts Each discussion is enhanced by technical notes and the analyses are also juxtaposed with personal reflections by artists who have close connections to particular amateur filmmakers These reflections reanimate the original private contexts of the home movies before they were recast as objects of study and artifacts of public history Capturing Digital Media Thomas J. Connelly, 2019-04-18 Why are filmmakers such as J J Abrams Christopher Nolan and Quentin Tarantino continuing to shoot their movies on celluloid in the digital age of cinema Are these filmmakers choosing the photochemical process of celluloid images purely for aesthetics purposes Or could their preference for celluloid have something to do with analogue s intimate connection to the subject of lack and desire Capturing Digital Media Perfection and Imperfection in Contemporary Film and Television examines the relationship between the perfection of the digital form and the imperfection of the human subject in recent film and television Using a number of key psychoanalytic terms and new media concepts Capturing Digital Media shows that the necessity of imperfection is where we locate the human subject of desire within the binary logic of the digital It argues that the perfection of digital must be wounded by forms of imperfection in order to make media texts such as film and television desirable But even as films and television texts incorporate forms of imperfection digital perfection remains a powerful attraction in our engagement with moving images such as high definition screens spectacular digital effects and state of the art sound

Silent Cinema Paolo Cherchi Usai,2019-04-04 Paolo Cherchi Usai provides a comprehensive introduction to the study research and preservation of silent cinema from its heyday in the early 20th century to its present day flourishing He traces the history of the moving image in its formative years from Edison s and Lumi re s first experiments to the dawn of talkies provides a clear guide to the basics of silent film technology introduces the technical and creative roles involved in its production and presents silent cinema as a performance event rather than a passive viewing experience This new greatly expanded edition takes the reader on a new journey exploring silent cinema in the broader context of technology culture and society from the invention of celluloid film and its related machinery to film studios laboratories theatres and audiences Among the people involved in the creation of a new art form were filmmakers actors and writers but also engineers entrepreneurs and projectionists Their collective efforts and the struggle to preserve their creative work by archives and museums are interwoven in a compelling story covering three centuries of media history from the magic lantern to the reinvention of silent cinema in digital form The new edition also includes comprehensive resource information for the study research preservation and exhibition of silent cinema

Global Perspectives on Amateur Film Histories and Cultures

Masha Salazkina,Enrique Fibla-Gutiérrez,2021-01-05 For too long the field of amateur cinema has focused on North America and Europe In Global Perspectives on Amateur Film Histories and Cultures however editors Masha Salazkina and Enrique Fibla Guti rrez fill the literature gap by extending that focus and increasing inclusivity Through carefully curated essays Salazkina and Fibla Guti rrez bring wider meaning and significance to the discipline through their study of alternative cinema in new territories fueled by different historical and political circumstances innovative technologies and ambitious practitioners The essays in this volume work to realize the radical societal democratization that shows up in amateur cinema around the world In particular diverse contributors highlight the significance of amateur filmmaking the exhibition of amateur films the uses and availability of film technologies and the inventive and creative approaches of filmmakers and advocates of amateur film Together these essays shed new light on alternative cinema in a wide range of cities and countries where amateur films thrive in the shadow of commercial and conventional film industries

Amateur Craft Stephen Knott,2015-08-27 Amateur Craft provides an illuminating and historically grounded account of amateur craft in the modern era from 19th century Sunday painters and amateur carpenters to present day railway modellers and yarnbombers Stephen Knott s fascinating study explores the curious and unexpected attributes of things made outside standardised models of mass production arguing that amateur craft practice is differential a temporary moment of control over work that both departs from and informs our productive engagement with the world Knott s discussion of the theoretical aspects of amateur craft practice is substantiated by historical case studies that cluster around the period 1850 1950 Looking back to the emergence of the modern amateur he makes reference to contemporary art and design practice that harnesses or exploits amateur conditions of making From Andy Warhol to Simon Starling such artistic interest elucidates the mercurial qualities of amateur craft Invaluable for students and researchers in art and design contemporary craft material culture and social history Amateur Craft counters both the marginalisation and the glorification of amateur craft practice It is richly illustrated with 41 images 14 in colour including 19th century ephemera and works of contemporary art Media and Cultural Studies

Meenakshi Gigi Durham, Douglas M. Kellner, 2009-02-09 Bringing together a range of core texts into one volume this acclaimed anthology offers the definitive resource in culture media and communication A fully revised new edition of the bestselling anthology in this dynamic and multidisciplinary field New contributions include essays from Althusser through to Henry Jenkins and a completely new section on Globalization and Social Movements Retains important emphasis on the giant thinkers and makers of the field Gramsci on hegemony Althusser on ideology Horkheimer and Adorno on the culture industry Raymond Williams on Marxist cultural theory Habermas on the public sphere McLuhan on media Chomsky on propaganda hooks and Mulvey on the subjects of visual pleasure and oppositional gazes Features a substantial critical introduction short section introductions and full bibliographic citations Everyday Movies Haidee Wasson, 2020-11-10

Everyday Movies documents the twentieth century rise of portable film projectors It demonstrates that since World War II the vast majority of movie watching did not happen in the glow of the large screen but rather took place alongside the glitches distortions and clickety clack of small machines that transformed home classroom museum community government industrial and military venues into sites of moving image display Reorienting the history of cinema away from the magic of the movie theater Haidee Wasson illustrates the remarkable persistence and proliferation of devices that fundamentally rejected the sleek highly professionalized film show She foregrounds instead another kind of apparatus one that was accessible affordable adaptable easy to use and crucially programmable Revealing rich archival discoveries this book charts a compelling and original history of film that brings to light new technologies and diverse forms of media engagement that continue to shape contemporary life Amateur Filmmaking Laura Rascaroli, Gwenda Young, Barry Monahan, 2014-02-27

With the advent of digital filmmaking and critical recognition of the relevance of self expression first person narratives and personal practices of memorialization interest in the amateur moving image has never been stronger Bringing together key scholars in the field and revealing the rich variety of amateur filmmaking from home movies of Imperial India and film diaries of life in contemporary China to the work of leading auteurs such as Joseph Morder and Peter Forgacs Amateur Filmmaking highlights the importance of amateur cinema as a core object of critical interest across an array of disciplines With contributions on the role of the archive on YouTube and on the impact of new technologies on amateur filmmaking these essays offer the first comprehensive examination of this growing field Small-Gauge Storytelling Ryan Shand, 2013-05-30

This book focuses on amateur fiction film making Portable Moving Images Ricardo Cedeño Montaña,2017-08-21 This media history explores a series of portable small cameras playback devices and storage units that have made the production of film and video available to everyone Covering several storage formats from 8mm films of the 1900s through the analogue videotapes of the 1970s to the compression algorithms of the 2000s this work examines the effects that the shrinkage of complex machines media formats and processing operations has had on the dissemination of moving images Using an archaeological approach to technical standards of media the author provides a genealogy of portable storage formats for film analog video and digitally encoded video This book is a step forward in decoding the storage media formats which up to now have been the domain of highly specialised technicians Video Cultures D. Buckingham,R. Willett,2009-10-09 Over the past decade there has been a huge increase in ordinary people s access to video production technology These essays explore the theoretical significance of this trend and its impact on society as well as examining a wide range of case studies from camcorders and camera phones to YouTube and citizen journalism Rethinking Media Change David Thorburn, Henry Jenkins,2004-09-17 The essays in Rethinking Media Change center on a variety of media forms at moments of disruption and cultural transformation The editors introduction sketches an aesthetics of media transition patterns of development and social dispersion that operate across eras media forms and cultures The book includes case studies of such earlier media as the book the phonograph early cinema and television It also examines contemporary digital forms exploring their promise and strangeness A final section probes aspects of visual culture in such environments as the evolving museum movie spectacles and the virtual window The contributors reject apocalyptic scenarios of media revolution demonstrating instead that media transition is always a mix of tradition and innovation an accretive process in which emerging and established systems interact shift and collude with one another Gender and Sexuality in East German Film Kyle Frackman,Faye Stewart,2018 The first scholarly collection in English or German to fully address the treatment of gender and sexuality in the productions of DEFA across genres and in social political and cultural context Politics of Documentary Michael Chanan,2019-07-25 This wide ranging study traces the history of the documentary from the first Lumiere films to Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 9 11 Chanan argues that documentary makes a vital contribution to the public sphere where ideas are debated opinion formed and those in authority are held to account Technologies of History Steve F. Anderson,2011 Captain Kirk fought Nazis JFK s assassination is a videogame touchstone And there s no history like Drunk History

Movies on Home Ground Ian Craven,2020-07-13 Movies on Home Ground Explorations in Amateur Cinema offers a critical response to the still under explored mode of amateur cinema as a particular sphere of British film practice Concentrating upon a roughly fifty year period 1930 1980 during which such filmmaking grew rapidly as a significant leisure activity in Britain the volume shows how popular cine assumed distinctive institutional and ideological forms and some remarkable aesthetic emphases grounded in consistent technical and critical apparatuses Although an outline history of such filmmaking is certainly implicit the priority of Movies On Home Ground is to offer a series of overlapping perspectives on amateur movie making with a view to locating such filmmaking as a component of the broader shape of British film culture. Emphasis is thus given to institutional contexts, technical determinants and the social formations of practising filmmakers as well as to concerns with the construction of amateur outlooks, understandings of amateur aesthetics and the remarkable diversity of amateur genericity. The anthology thus supplies a text offering support to study courses dealing with the many varieties of non professional participation best understood as truly amateur rather than as independent or alternative filmmaking. By granting the amateur a place within the acknowledged range of significant interventions, the recognised canon of British filmmaking is widened in fascinating new directions.
