Growing Up in Montana Neil Cromwell, 2020-11-23 I always felt privileged to have been raised in the Bitterroot Valley Yes we had tragedy when we lost our dad and our ranch but with the help of the Good Lord we prevailed These are our experiences of ranching hunting logging and even fighting forest fires The valley was at its best And its beauty must be told Hearing it again and again Its memories shall never grow old Flyfishing Adventures - Montana John Holt, 2010-08 OK you have fished the fabled blue ribbon waters in Montana the Madison Yellowstone Bighorn and others Great fishing and unfortunately great crowds Our new series Flyfishing Adventures introduces you to the little known gems Great fishing waters without the crowds The first book in the series features 21 of these waters in Montana John Holt has been fishing these waters for years He takes you with him as he probes the Clark s Fork of the Yellowstone in eastern Montana for healthy browns and rainbows the Marias River for its long carnivorous brown trout the lakes of the Bears Paw Mountains for brookies and bass the Poplar River for giant northern pike and many other great waters John likes to explore and spend time in the remote parts of Big Sky Country where there are no crowds the folks are friendly the scenery is stunning and the fishing is superb

Whitefish Can't Jump E. Donnell Thomas, Jr., 1994 In his Preface to Whitefish Can't Jump Don Thomas writes A space alien arriving on the Big Hole during the middle of the salmon fly hatch might conclude that the same sport an earlier writer had trouble distinguishing from religion is really about entomology fashionable outdoor wear and power all of which is wrong Above all else fly fishing is about fish and the places they are found Here then are nineteen fly fishing stories refreshingly devoid of Latin pink shirts and angling glitterati stories where the fish and the places they are found unabashedly occupy center stage On the flats of Christmas Island the fusion of Fin Nor and bonefish becomes only the second lifetime experience to live up to its advance billing On a river in southwestern Alaska boating a huge rainbow where no huge rainbow should be becomes more important than avoiding a midstream collision with a nine foot grizzly A Montreal gas station attendant s tip leads to a far northern pond and a harrowing encounter with The Ultimate Northern Pike The quixotic quest for a permit on a fly in Belize is marred only slightly by a dissolving marriage and a Blue Crab Special impaled in a philosophical guide s ear In Siberia Dolly Varden vodka and the novelty of Catch and Release combine to thaw the cold war And in the Yellowstone River a new season begins with Rocky Mountain Whitefish and the reminder of just how arbitrary the distinction between gamefish and just plain fish can be And why it ultimately doesn't matter From each story we learn a little about fishing a lot about fish and a thing or two about life or at least the kind of life where time spent on the water with fly rod in hand is infinitely more important than time spent anywhere else
